

AMERICAN STUDIES 650 ENROLLMENT FORM

Instructions:

1. AMST 650 is designated for preparation of Ph.D. qualifying exam fields only. Every doctoral student may register for up to three AMST 650s of three credits each, one with each of their field advisors.
2. In order to register for an AMST 650, students must have completed at least an initial draft of their exam field booklist.
3. If the draft booklist has been completed, the student and their exam field advisor should agree on the deliverable for the AMST 650 and indicate this below.
4. After the student and their advisor sign the form, it should be submitted to the Graduate Coordinator along with the booklist draft; once the Graduate Chair has approved the 650, the student may obtain a CRN under which to register.
