

MARK E. RECKTENWALD
Chief Justice, Supreme Court of Hawai'i

Chief Justice Mark E. Recktenwald currently serves as the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Hawai'i. He first became an Associate Justice on May 11, 2009 and was later appointed as the Chief Justice on September 14, 2010. Prior to his appointment to the Hawai'i Supreme Court, Chief Justice Recktenwald served as the Chief Judge of the Hawai'i Intermediate Court of Appeals and as an Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Hawai'i.

Representative Linda Ichiyama is a member of the Hawai'i House of Representatives, elected in 2010 to represent District 32 (Moanalua, Salt Lake, and Aliamanu). She serves as the Chair of the House Pandemic & Disaster Preparedness Committee. Ichiyama is one of the co-conveners of the Women's Legislative Caucus as well as a member of the House Committees on Government Reform and Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs.

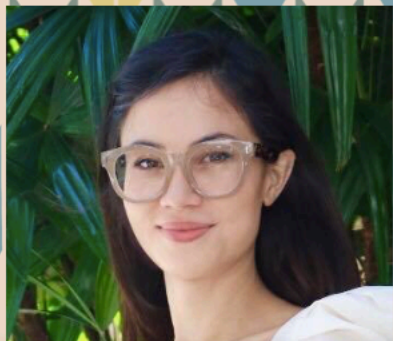

LINDA ICHIYAMA
Hawai'i House of Representatives

CAITLIN HUMPHREYS
Staff Attorney, Legal Aid Hawai'i

Caitlin Humphreys is a staff attorney for the Legal Aid Society of Hawai'i. Specializing in the Housing and Consumer Protection Unit in Honolulu, Humphreys advocates for tenants' rights in public housing, the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program, the Low-Income Housing Tax Program, and under the Fair Housing Act. Humphreys has also conducted clinics on landlord tenant matters, custody matters, and domestic violence in multiple states.

KHARA JABOLA-CAROLUS
Director, Hawai'i State Commission on the Status of Women

Deja Ostrowski is a staff attorney at MLPC with extensive experience in civil rights advocacy, health policy, and community organizing. In 2019, Ostrowski was appointed to serve on the Hawai'i Commission on the Status of Women. Ostrowski served as the Public Policy Advocate for the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, and previously held positions with the Domestic Violence Action Center, the Hawai'i Civil Rights Commission, and the Hawai'i Appleseed Center for Law & Economic Justice.

DEJA OSTROWSKI
Staff Attorney, Medical Legal
Partnership for Children in Hawai'i

SCOTT MORISHIGE
Governor's Coordinator on Homelessness

Director Khara Jabola-Carolus currently leads the State Commission on the Status of Women. In her career, Jabola-Carolus has worked as the director of the Hawai'i Coalition for Immigrant Rights and as the public affairs director for the Hawai'i Office of Strategies 360. In those roles, Jabola-Carolus helped pass state legislation that extended driver's licenses to undocumented immigrants and created a subsidy for family caregivers.

Scott Morishige currently serves as the Governor's Coordinator on Homelessness as well as the Chair of the Hawai'i Interagency Council on Homelessness. Morishige works to provide broad policy direction and coordination in addressing the issue of homelessness in Hawai'i. Previously, Morishige served as the executive director of Protect Hawai'i's 'Ohana, Children, Under-Served, Elderly, and Disabled, a nonprofit and advocacy organization for health and human services.