7th UH Mānoa Assessment Leadership Institute

May 21-24, 2019

Crawford Hall 231, Assessment Office, University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

Faculty and staff in Hawai‘i higher education institutions who are interested, intend to lead academic program/institutional learning assessment projects, and can contribute to curriculum discussions or decisions.

A two-person team from the same department or institution is encouraged.

Priority will be given to those with assessment responsibilities.

WHAT ARE THE ACTIVITIES?

4-day summer workshop

Group meetings in fall 2019

Project presentation in 2020

WHY SHOULD YOU APPLY?

♦ Learn to lead assessment projects
♦ Enhance collaborative and facilitative leadership skills
♦ Receive individualized support from assessment experts
♦ Network with assessment professionals across Hawai‘i

COST

♦ $900 per person
♦ Fee is waived for UH Mānoa faculty & staff with endorsement from dean

Facilitators

Monica Stitt-Bergh, Ph.D.

Monica has 25 years of experience assessment and evaluation. She served as the President of the Association of Assessment for Learning in Higher Education and the Hawai‘i-Pacific Evaluation Association. As a thought-leader in the field of learning assessment, Monica’s scholarship on assessment capacity building is nationally recognized. She has created and facilitated over 100 workshops on teaching and learning-outcomes assessment.

Yao Hill, Ph.D.

Yao specializes in faculty professional development in learning assessment. She has over 10 years of experience in program evaluation and learning assessment. She initiated the assessment-leadership building model at UH Mānoa. She has offered over 115 workshops and 170 consultations on the topic of assessment, evaluation, and curriculum development. She is the Vice-President of the Hawai‘i-Pacific Evaluation Association.

APPLY BY March 11, 2019

manoa.hawaii.edu/assessment/institute

Contact: Yao Hill at yao.hill@hawaii.edu · 956-4283

More information: manoa.hawaii.edu/assessment/institute