Call for Applications

ASSESSMENT LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

May 19–22, 2020

WHAT WE OFFER
The institute focuses on learning outcomes assessment and is a mix of listening, applying, and sharing with colleagues.

HIGHLIGHTS:
- Faculty engagement strategies
- Leadership tools
- Assessment resources
- Data analysis & data visualization
- Interpretation and use of results
- Curriculum mapping & design
- Guest speakers

WHO SHOULD APPLY
We invite individuals and teams of faculty who are beginners or those who have intermediate experience with assessment in their department. Priority is given to those with assessment responsibilities.

APPLY BY MARCH 30, 2020
manoa.hawaii.edu/assessment/institute

Venue: University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa
Cost: $900 per person (waived for UH-M faculty with endorsement from dean).
Contact: Monica Stitt-Bergh, airo@hawaii.edu, (808) 956-6669, Assessment Office, University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa

FACILITATORS
Monica Stitt-Bergh, Ph.D., is an educational psychologist with 25 years in assessment. She plans and conducts institutional assessment projects and has spent the last 11 years working to create a positive view of assessment and to increase use of assessment findings.

Yao Hill, Ph.D., specializes in faculty professional development in learning assessment. During her 15 years of experience, she has initiated the assessment-leadership building model at UH Mānoa and facilitated over 100 workshops. She is the current President of the Hawai‘i-Pacific Evaluation Association.