Preparing for the
GRE® Graduate Record Exam
(P12771)

Prepare for the Graduate Record Exam (GRE® Review test-taking techniques, timesaving methods, and content areas covered in the exam: reading comprehension, sentence relationships, relationships between words and concepts, logical reasoning, quantitative problem solving, quantitative comparison and graphs, and analytical writing.

Sep 7 - Oct 26 • Sat • 8 mtgs • 9:00am-12:30pm •
UHM Kuykendall 209 • $295 • Provide email address with registration
(look for first Lauilima email before Sep 7)

Instructors: Vicky Chiu-Irion, MA in Economics, BA in Math and Economics, is a Honolulu Community College faculty member who has taught college-level mathematics for more than 20 years. Conred Maddox, MA in English Composition and Rhetoric, is a faculty member in the English Department and director of the Writing Center at Honolulu Community College.

AFTER registering and BEFORE the first class meeting, complete the following:

1. Purchase the “Kaplan GRE Premier 2014 with 6 Practice Tests: Book + Online + DVD + Mobile.”

2. Write 2 practice essays and take the full-length paper Practice Test.
   Allow 3.0 to 3.5 hours to:
   • Write your Essays in response to the Issue Essay on pages 411-412 (30 minutes) and to the Argument Essay on pages 413-414 (30 minutes).
   • Complete the multiple-choice Verbal Reasoning and Quantitative Reasoning sections (120 minutes) on pages 417-456 of the book. Score your answers using the Answer Key on page pages 460-461.
   • Write down your total scores (Verbal and Quantitative) and bring along with your Essays — name printed clearly on each — to turn in at the first class.

   The more you practice before taking the actual exam, the better you are likely to do.