Welcome!

On behalf of everyone in the department of EALL, we would like to wish you all a Year of the Tiger that is full of fortune and luck!

Every year, we celebrate the Chinese Culture Day and, for the eleventh time, different units of the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa and partners from the Chinese community are sponsoring this year’s festivities: the Chinese Section and the Chinese Language Flagship Center in the Department of EALL, the Center for Chinese Studies in the College of Arts, Languages and Letters, the Maryknoll School Mandarin Immersion Program, and the Chinese Language Education Association of Hawai‘i (CLEAH).

This is a great opportunity for all of you who are studying or are interested in Chinese language and culture. Get a glimpse of the Chinese way of life with hundreds of UH students and visitors from the communities who will be attending this special event. Come and join us for fun and educational activities to experience diverse aspects of Chinese culture.

2022: Year of the Tiger

In popular culture, the Year of the Tiger is associated with various prognostications for the upcoming year, lucky numbers, lucky colors, auspicious romantic connections, similarities between persons born in those years, correlations between Chinese astrology and Western astrology, and the like. For more information on the Chinese zodiac, see
