Carpooling, biking, walking, and taking TheBus are recommended alternatives.

Sunday, April 15

“Advancing Peace Through the Power of Aloha” – for general public

Please plan on arriving early. The University expects traffic delays due to the two mid-day events in Lower Campus facilities: the Dalai Lama’s address and the Rainbow baseball game. Traffic will also be re-directed in various parts of the campus to facilitate security measures surrounding the Dalai Lama’s visit.

Parking will be available in the Lower Campus Parking Structure, as well as in lots mauka of Dole Street; however, University parking lots are expected to fill to capacity. The University’s Rainbow Shuttle service will be operating on Upper Campus from 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The shuttle route will travel from the BioMedical Sciences building on East-West Road to Krauss Circle.

Parking fee (Upper or Lower Campus): $6.00 per vehicle. UH parking permit holders may park in any marked stall on campus at no charge, space permitting.

Carpooling, biking, walking, and taking TheBus are recommended alternatives.
