COMMENTARY FOR CLOVERBUD, JUNIOR, INTERMEDIATE, AND SENIOR DIVISIONS

(Write out your commentary AS YOU WOULD LIKE IT READ AT THE FASHION REVUE SHOW.)

The commentaries should be approximately 30-60 seconds. Be sure to include your full name, your 4-H club and other interests. Should include a detailed description of your garment or sewing project: the type of neckline, sleeves, hemline, bodice, etc. Fiber content, care, type of fabric used may be included. Please be descriptive in your commentaries. The script should be written below. If you are entering two (2) garments/sewing projects, please write a different script for each garment/sewing project. *Cloverbud Division commentaries can be kept simple.

Examples Below

Sophisticated and economical are two key words in Ashlie Salas-Selem's shopping bag. On the go all the time, this Kapolei High School senior is able to excel in the classroom and in the swimming pool, playing water polo, and teaching swimming lessons... Ready or not.... Zipped into fashion, Ashlie models a Jessica McClintock Victorian short, satin, full, gathered skirt with yoke sequin appliqués. To complement, a satin bustier top with a sweetheart neck and gathered bodice, is displayed. This sensational look retails for two-hundred and four dollars ($204). NO SWEAT! The entire outfit was donated graciously by an outstanding advisor. The outfit will be great to wear to winter ball, proms, and other upcoming formal events. Just as easily Ashlie zipped into fashion, this two piece outfit makes it easy for any active girl to get back in business!!

Shimmering and sparkling in this Jessica McClintock gown is Emilynn Alejo, is a first year member of the Farrington FCCLA chapter. This smooth and sleek dress, will move gracefully as Emilynn does her fancy dance steps at the upcoming formal events at Farrington High School. A member of the YMCA Dance Club enables her to learn and practice the newest dance moves so this form fitting, lustrous outfit will move with Emilynn. The gently draped neckline, gives the dress a soft and feminine appearance. Emilynn is a very busy sophomore, who is also on the varsity soccer team, the Club 21 organization, and the school's chorus.

---

Stylishly smart in a trendy black and white three piece outfit is Kathleen Dalere, of Farrington High School. The straight skirt trimmed with white ribbing, flatters her stately stature. And the contemporary jacket with it's white laced trim, false pocket flaps, and princess line ribbing, gives this jacket the 'flair' which appeals to Kathleen. She is definitely ready for her business meetings and leadership workshops during her tenure as the Hawaii State FCCLA Vice President of Public Relations. Hanging up her jacket, and putting on some 'bling', this outfit will be perfect for a party or the dance at the annual Career and Technical Education state-wide conference.

Ready for fun and dancing, is Kimberly Turalva, in this soft and slightly flowing dress which will move gracefully over the dance floor. This active girl who is a member of T-shirt Theater, a Drama for the Alliance of Education program enjoys dancing, so the softly gathered side seams gives this dress the perfect style and fit for Kimberly. The matching bolero with its cap sleeves and knotted closure is needed to meet dress code requirements at all of Farrington High School events. The curved empire bodice of the dress, is gently gathered in the center with self ties giving this dress a halter neckline and a very dressy appearance, one that will definitely be found at any social gathering. The dress's fun pattern matches well with Kimberly's outgoing, fun loving personality.
