4-H ʻAhaʻōlelo Code of Conduct

The 4-H Pledge does a great job of stating what we hope young people will learn and do in 4-H programs. I pledge my head to clearer thinking - means a 4-H'er is committed to learning the knowledge and skills that enable them to make wise decisions through opportunities that develop independence, which is an Essential Element of 4-H. By gaining a sense of independence, the 4-H'er is committed to exercising self-discipline, personal responsibility and becoming an independent thinker. Therefore, the youth delegate, by signing this form, agrees to conduct him/herself in a responsible manner and abide by all expectations as follows:

1. Youth Delegates are responsible for attending all conference activities. Any unauthorized absence is not permitted; and youth delegates must remain on the conference premises or designated event area. In case of illness, youth delegates must inform their Delegation Chaperone.
2. Youth Delegates should have respect for sessions, activities and speakers in progress by remaining for the entirety of the session, activity or event , showing courtesy during the session, activity or event when taking flash photos, and not using cell phones for conversations or texting.
3. Youth Delegates will interact with other youth delegates, Adult Chaperones, guests, presenters and others in a courteous and respectful manner, upholding high standards of conduct, appearance, language, and actions at all times. Behavior and/or use of inappropriate language, gestures, inflammatory statements, or derogatory comments are not permitted.
4. Youth Delegates acknowledge that any, and all, adults have authority to serve and act in the role of an Adult Chaperone during the conference and will respect their guidance and direction.
5. Youth Delegates will be respectful of all property and facilities used during the activity or event and will be held financially accountable for any damages, theft, or misuse.
6. Youth Delegates will dress appropriately and in accordance with any established dress code and use good judgment in selecting clothing appropriate for weather and occasion. Clothing that is revealing or contains obscene language/pictures or with drug, tobacco or alcohol advertising is never allowed. Youth Delegates will wear a program name-tag to all conference activities unless removal is specified.
7. The conference curfew for any given day must be obeyed, no exceptions. (Curfew means all youth delegates must be in their assigned room.) Youth Delegates will abide by established written curfew and quiet times or by Delegation Adult Chaperone's spoken word. Rooms need to be quiet between 11:00 pm to 7:00 am. Noise in the halls and rooms must be kept to a minimum and talking limited to quiet conversational levels to remain considerate of others wishing to sleep. Running in the hallways is prohibited.
8. Youth Delegates will abide by the lodging assignments for the entirety of 4-H ʻAhaʻōlelo Conference for easy location in case of an emergency. No room switching is allowed.
9. Visiting the sleeping room of the opposite sex is not permitted. Youth Delegates must interact and visit with other youth delegates in lobbies or other common gathering areas. Kissing, intimate hugging and other displays of personal affection are in poor taste and will not be tolerated.

10. All participants attending the 4-H ʻAhaʻōlelo Conference are expected to adhere to a zero tolerance policy for tobacco, alcohol, illegal drug use/possession, and violence. Youth delegates must inform their Delegation Adult Chaperone of all prescription and over-the-counter medications in their possession.

I understand that I represent my club, community, and state 4-H program and will conduct myself with maturity and respect. I understand that if my conduct is deemed unsatisfactory, I may not be eligible to participate in future 4-H activities. I have read and understand the Code of Conduct and agree to abide by it.

Participant Signature _____ Date _____

Youth delegates (under age 18) must have signature of parent/guardian.

Parent/Guardian In addition to understanding the above expectations for my youth, I also understand the following:

1. The Delegation Adult Chaperone chaperoning my youth serves as an advisor and mentor to the youth delegates. The Delegation Adult Chaperone will make appropriate decisions in emergency situations to enhance the safety, health and well-being of youth delegates.

2. The Delegation Adult Chaperone will provide leadership for youth behavior management and take appropriate actions, as necessary. Such actions may include sending the youth home at the expense of parent/guardian.

I have read and understand the expectations and consequences related to the Code of Conduct for my youth and agree, as the parent/guardian(s), to be bound by them.
