II. COURSE DESCRIPTION and OBJECTIVES

Korean 102 is the second half of an elementary Korean language course designed for those who have met the pre-requisite of passing KOR 101 with at least a C or having taken an official placement test. KOR 102 meets Monday through Thursday for fifty minutes. Emphasis is placed on the fundamentals of listening, speaking, reading, and writing. In addition, students will be exposed to everyday life contexts (shopping, working, etc.) as part of living in contemporary Korean society.

Student Learning Outcomes:

By the end of the course, students will be able to:
1. Read and comprehend slightly more complex written texts compared to KOR 101.
2. Engage in more interactive conversations relevant to daily life such as when ordering food, talking on the phone, taking various modes of transportation, etc.
3. Write about their lives in broader contexts beyond basic biographical information.
4. Use diverse expressions to make conjectures, recommendations, promises, and propositions.
5. Understand various aspects of Korean culture as they increase their awareness of socio-cultural factors such as age, status, and formality.

2. Online workbook: Instructions will be provided information during the first week of the course.
3. Other resources: Visit [www.klear textbook.com](http://www.klear textbook.com) for the PowerPoint materials.

V. COURSE POLICIES
1. Attendance (10%)
   a) All students are expected to arrive on time and must be in the classroom by the time class starts.
   b) Late arrival to class will be counted as tardy. Three occasions of being more than 10 minutes late to class will be counted as an absence, resulting in deductions from Attendance and Participation grades.
   c) In the case of anticipated absences, students must get the instructor’s consent at least one week in advance.
   d) Excused absences are determined on a case-by-case basis and at the instructor’s discretion. Absences must be substantiated by verifiable, written documentation in order to be considered for approval in receiving attendance credit. Submission of documentation does not guarantee an excused absence.
   e) In cases where advance notification is not possible (e.g. accident or emergency), the student must provide an explanation of why the notice could not be sent prior to the absence from class.
   f) In the case of an excused absence on the day of a test, (NOT vocabulary quizzes) a make-up test can be rescheduled with the instructor. Although make-ups may be allowed for excused absences, late points may be deducted at the teacher's discretion. However, make-up tests will NOT be allowed for unexcused absences.

2. Participation (10%)
   a) Based on students’ level of participation and engagement in the classroom, they will receive a daily participation grade ranging from 1 to 4, with 4 being the highest.
   b) Any absence (including excused absences) will result in a daily participation grade of zero.
   c) Being late by any number of minutes or leaving early by any number of minutes will automatically result in a deduction of 1 point for the day.
   d) Disruptive behavior, including but not limited to, doing work unrelated to the class or using electronic devices for reasons other than class work, will result in a deduction of points.

3. Vocabulary Assignment (10%)
   Students should write the new words and expressions for each lesson 5 times and submit it into Google Classroom by the designated deadlines (see daily schedule). Handwritten and computer generated are both accepted. Detailed instruction will be given after the semester begins.

4. Workbook Assignments (10%)
These will include 8 taken for homework as well as in-class assignments. Workbook assignment will be done via online available at https://app.junctioneducation.com/. The students should log in (or create a new account if this is the first time they use the workbook) with the same link, and then use the Enrollment as a Student Codes to join the Section they’re in: class code will be given on the first day of course.

If you purchase the online workbook according to the direction from the teacher after the class starts, more detailed instructions will be provided at a later time. All homework must be submitted by designated deadlines (see the last page). Doing homework during class time will result in a deduction of participation points (-2 pts.) and 50% deduction in the score for that specific homework assignment.

5. Lesson Tests (15%)
There will be three lesson tests throughout the semester. Vocabulary, grammar, reading, and writing will be the principal items of assessment.

6. Oral Interview (10%)
Students will conduct one-on-one interviews with their instructor, during which they will respond to simple questions and ask them as well. They will also participate in a simple role play exercise to evaluate their ability to effectively communicate in real-life scenarios covered in class (such as ordering food, shopping for clothes, etc.) The interview will last about 3-5 minutes for each student. In the case of an excused absence, a make-up may be scheduled by the instructor and late points may be deducted at the teacher’s discretion. Further details will be announced later.

7. Final Presentation (15%)
Each student must give a presentation and lead a short discussion session, entirely in Korean. Students will choose a topic related to content covered in the course (e.g. my daily life, my family, school life, Korean cultures etc.). The presentation must be a minimum of 3 minutes, and no longer than 4 minutes maximum, including Q&A and discussion. Detailed guidelines to follow.

8. Final Written Exam (20%)
The final written exam is a cumulative assessment of all the content covered throughout the course. The format is similar to lesson tests and a study guide will be provided. The exam date is TBA(time and place will be announced at a later day). If you are enrolled in other EALL core courses (i.e. 100 to 400 Chinese and Japanese), please make arrangements with your instructor in advance as the exam times will overlap. No make-up exams will be given without prior permission from the instructor.

VI. OTHER POLICIES AND STUDENT CONDUCT
1. Make-Up Policies
   a) There are NO MAKEUP lesson tests, oral interviews, final exams, or final presentations unless official documentation is provided as proof of a justifiable reason for absence.
   b) If a student foresees an absence, s/he may request the instructor’s permission to turn in assignments earlier/later. Without the instructor’s permission, late submissions will only be accepted up to two days past the deadline and will automatically result in grade deduction at the instructor’s discretion.
   c) It is your responsibility to read the daily schedule carefully so as not to miss anything that you need to prepare for each class session.

2. During the Class meeting:
a) Attend all classes and be punctual. Missing class, arriving late, and leaving early will negatively affect your grade.
b) Keep up with the class schedule. Keep track of all the announcements and resources.
c) Please turn off any devices, such as cell phones, that might disrupt the class. Any usage of electronic devices should be done in a responsible way and only for class purposes. Any usage of electronic devices that is deemed to be for purposes other than what is needed for class activities will result in a deduction of daily participation points.
d) Use of laptops and other materials irrelevant to instruction (e.g., newspaper, magazine, materials for other courses) is not allowed.
e) Refrain from unnecessary chatting that is irrelevant to class instruction.
f) As this is a language class, the more you participate (e.g. ask and answer questions, interact with your classmates, speak in front of others) the more your language abilities will improve. Therefore, it is recommended that you take advantage of these opportunities to practice speaking in the classroom as much as possible.
g) Speaking practice is a very important part of the language classroom. Therefore, eating food and chewing gum are not allowed, as they will interfere with pronunciation and successful communication.

3. Other Policies:
a) Do not use any automatic translation devices for any assignments. The use of any translators will automatically result in a ZERO on the assignment.

b) Cheating will result in a zero.
   The following definition of cheating comes from the UH-Manoa Conduct Code.
   The term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to: (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (2) use of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the UH faculty, staff or student (4) engaging in any behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class discussion.
   Attempts to cheat and/or suspicious behavior will result in failing ANY test or assignment.

b) Plagiarism will result in a zero.
   The following definition of plagiarism comes from the UH-Manoa Conduct Code.
   Plagiarism includes but is not limited to submitting, in fulfillment of an academic requirement, any work that has been copied in whole or in part from another individual’s work without attributing that borrowed portion to the individual; neglecting to identify as a quotation another’s idea and particular phrasing that was not assimilated into the student’s language and style or paraphrasing a passage so that the reader is misled as to the source; submitting the same written or oral or artistic material in more than one course without obtaining authorization from the instructors involved; or "drylabbing," which includes obtaining and using experimental data and laboratory write-ups from other sections of a course or from previous terms.

c) Online Classroom Guideline and Etiquette
   1) All students must sign up for the Zoom application & google classroom and access them via their personal computer or any other suitable device equipped with synchronous streaming capabilities.
   2) You should have your cell phone ready at all times to be used as a back-up and not as the primary device for participating in online classes. This is due to the cellphone’s limited capabilities and severely limited functionality with the Zoom application (ex: you will not be able to simultaneously insert text or edit materials while being able to see the instructor’s lectures). Your cellphone should be used only as a back-up platform.
   3) Students are required to have both of their audio and video enabled to receive participation and attendance points for the class.
4) The instructor will set mute as the default option upon entry into the online class session. Those who have something to ask or say may press the unmute button. During the practice sessions, all mics will be unmuted so that the instructor can monitor students’ participation.
5) Through the “breakout room” function in the Zoom app, students will be sorted into smaller groups and complete in-class activities. Please be sure to have your cell phone near you so that you can take pictures of the instructional sides and use them as reference while you complete the activities.
6) Do NOT share inappropriate content nor use the private chat function during class time.
7) Students must be fully clothed and sit with proper posture (not in bed for example).
8) Students are not allowed to record or screenshot the zoom meeting.

4. UH Student Conduct:
   Our course follows the UH Student Conduct Code. It is ultimately each student’s responsibility to understand the rules regarding plagiarism and cheating at UH, and to learn how to avoid such violations. For details, go to: http://studentaffairs.manoa.hawaii.edu/policies/conduct_code/definitions.php

5. Visitors and Recording:
   Throughout the semester, there likely will be several visitors who come to observe the instructor and the class. The instructor will try to announce the visit in advance and explain the purpose of the visit. As audio and video recording may take place, if a student is uncomfortable with being recorded, please let the instructor know.

6. Back Credits:
   a) The full UHM back credits policy may be found at the following link: https://manoa.hawaii.edu/ovcaa/policies/pdf/M5.403_HSL_Back_Credit.pdf
   b) If you have any questions regarding the policy please contact Mr. Todd Ashida at tashida@hawaii.edu; his office is in Moore Hall 378.

7. Miscellaneous
   a) The medium of instruction will be only in Korean. Students also must use Korean as much as they can throughout the course. This will most likely not be an easy thing to do! Therefore, it is highly recommended that you create good relationships with your classmates so that you can help each other when necessary.
   b) Your suggestions are welcome at any time. Please notify the instructor of any suggestions. Every effort will be made to accommodate your needs.
   c) The instructor will hold an office hour per week during which students may come for assistance with material from the class. Even before coming to the scheduled office hours, it is recommended that students email the instructor so that accommodations can be made for all students. Students will be expected to come with specific questions from KOR 102 and will be allotted a maximum of 15 minutes when there are others waiting. If there are no other students waiting, sessions with the instructor can be extended for another 15 minutes. If a student cannot make the allotted office hours, they need to be proactive and schedule a meeting with the instructor. As mentioned previously, meetings with instructor should only last up to 30 minutes.

8. KOKUA and Other Services
   1. Disability and Mental Health
