Community Standards

Our on-campus residential communities are places in which all people should feel welcome, valued, and safe. A climate of fear or intimidation is not acceptable. All community members deserve to be treated with respect.

The university believes in zero tolerance for sex discrimination and gender based violence. The Office of Title IX has the specific responsibility for providing prompt and effective responses to all complaints of sex discrimination for faculty, staff and students. For detailed information, access the website of the Office of Title IX at: https://manoa.hawaii.edu/titleix/.

For details on the community standards related to sex discrimination and gender-based violence, refer to the section: 4. Assault/Harassment/Discrimination, 4-A. Sex Discrimination and Gender-Based Violence.

In addition to these Community Standards, violations of the rules and regulations contained in the Residence Hall and Apartment Contract, the Guide to Campus Living, and specific hall regulations are prohibited.

1. Alcohol

All residents are expected to know and comply with all State laws and guidelines regarding the consumption of alcoholic beverages on University premises as outlined in the University policies (EP11.201 and EP11.202) and the Community Standards. University or Student Housing Services staff, acting in their official capacity, may request a government-issued picture identification to verify resident(s) and/or guest(s) ages.

Any and all alcohol outside the room/apartment is strictly prohibited, including, but not limited to, hallways, in parking lots, courtyards, and BBQ areas. Resident hosts will be held responsible for distributing alcohol to anyone, resident and/or guest, under the age of 21.

F. Drinking games (such as water pong) or any activity that promotes excessive consumption, whether or not alcohol is involved, are strictly prohibited.

G. Common source containers are strictly prohibited and will be confiscated and/or disposed of. Common source containers include, but are not limited to, kegs, party balls, water jugs, and beer bongs.
