Meal Plans Academic Year 2017-2018

- Participation in one of the meal programs listed below is mandatory for students living in the residence halls and optional only for apartment residents.
- Applicants with special dietary needs or other concerns that would limit or affect living in the residence halls and participating in the mandatory meal program should consider off-campus housing or share these concerns with the Student Housing Services office before accepting an assignment.

The meal plans entitles you to various meals, in the form of swipes, each week during the semester, plus a predetermined amount of retail meal points per semester. For example, the Select Plan entitles residents to eat up to 14 meals each week and $175.00 in meal points that may be used at the residential dining cafeterias and various campus retail outlets. Please note that unused meals for the week will expire each Saturday night; meal points will expire at the end of the spring semester.

These plans feature the traditional residential dining experience with unlimited second servings at either the Hale Aloha or Gateway House Cafeterias. Additionally, meals may be eaten at select retail campus outlets at the Campus Center. Meals at retail venues will have a cash equivalency $5.50 per meal and function like the former block plans. Points may be used to cover any cost above the equivalency.
