

Online Listing Service

The University of Hawaii Off-Campus Housing Referral Program (OCH) is a rental referral service provided by the University. Our on-line listing service is available to the public for listing available rental properties to all students, faculty and staff of the University of Hawai'i and UH affiliate schools.

Our website serves as a primary resource for all University of Hawai'i students, faculty, and staff who are searching for, or offering, rental properties. Property owners and managers do not have access to view listings or make comparisons. You may contact us to inquire about rental averages for your housing type and general location anytime. However, the OCH staff will not establish rental prices; nor are they permitted to suggest a rental price or speculate at the perceived value based upon a submitted rental cost.
