The residence halls comprise roughly two-thirds of all on-campus accommodations. The majority of rooms are double occupancy and are furnished with beds, desks, chairs, desk lights and closets. Rooms offer wired internet access via data port(s). Bed linen, pillows and other personal articles are not provided.

If you have a documented special need that requires telephone related attachments (e.g. answering machine, TTY, flashing ringer, flashing alarm clock, etc.), please inform the Student Housing office prior to your arrival.

The only halls with air conditioners in its rooms are in Hale Anuenue and Frear Hall.

Residents assigned to the residence halls are required to participate in the board program. ALL residence halls are co-ed and smoke-free living environments.
