Hale Aloha Towers

Comprised of four 13-story buildings, each of the towers which make up the Hale Aloha complex accommodate freshmen only. The Hale Aloha Cafeteria is located within the complex.

The Hale Aloha towers are each named after the official flowers of the four most populous Hawaiian Islands.

- Hale Aloha Lehua was built in 1970; the Lehua is the official flower of Hawaii Island.
- Hale Aloha Ilima was built in 1970; the Ilima is the official flower of the Island of Oahu.
- Hale Aloha Mokihana was built in 1971; the Mokihana is the official flower of the Island of Kauai.
- Hale Aloha Lokelani was built in 1971; the Lokelani is the official flower of the Island of Maui.
- Ilima and Mokihana were taken offline for renovation in 2008, and reopened in August of 2009.
- Lokelani and Lehua was taken offline for renovation in 2009, and reopened in August of 2010.
