Hale Kahawai was built in 1964, and originally housed 140 women. “Hale Kahawai” means “house by the stream” in Hawaiian. After some re-models, it now holds 156 residents and is a co-educational facility.

Hale Kahawai is a 4-story building accessible by stairs. It is located at the entrance to Manoa valley. Hale Kahawai provides a quiet and cool living environment, with quick and easy access to the Manoa Marketplace, a community library, recreation center, and a popular weekend open market.
