

African and Caribbean influenced Modern Dance with Krislyn World

Friday February 2nd, 2018
12:30 - 1:50pm

UHM Dance Building

Across Maile Way from Hamilton Library and Paradise Palms
Free and open to the public

Krislyn World has served as a lecturer of dance at the Peck School of the Arts since 2003. She is an instructor of three dance disciplines, African, Latin, and Modern Dance. She teaches both non-dance majors and dance majors. Krislyn is a graduate of the The Juilliard School-BFA, and of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Peck School of the Arts-MFA. She also attended The North Carolina School of the Arts-University of North Carolina, majoring in both Ballet and Modern Dance. In addition to Performing Art, Krislyn is trained in Healing Art, and is a nationally certified massage therapist. She has dedicated her dance career to arts education through teaching, performing and choreographing locally, nationally and internationally. Dance has taken Krislyn to West Africa, South Africa, South-East Asia, Europe, Canada, and the Caribbean. Her world-view of life and dance is inspired by her travels to over 36 countries.