

Announcing a New Asynchronous Course. Sign up for:

NURS 449 GERONTOLOGY, HEALTH CARE AND LAW
CRN 79708

FOR STUDENTS IN GERONTOLOGY, HEALTH CARE, SOCIAL WORK, NURSING, PRE-LAW, PRE-MEDICINE

Nursing 449 is an asynchronous, interdisciplinary course. You will learn about issues, problems and possible solutions in gerontology, health law and ethics within your own time schedule.

Emphasis is placed on the legal needs of older adults in preparing for the future. Actionable and preventive legal strategies in caregiving, health care, end of life care, dementia, and other age-related issues will be discussed and applied. Emphasis will be placed on the application of ethics.

Taught by Lenora Lee, PhD, and Prof. James Pietsch, JD
