

Writing Center

Student Learning Outcomes for Writers

Writers coming to the Writing Center will:

- 1) Engage in a collaborative writing process that spans invention through revision.
- 2) Practice information literacy by
 1. using resources on writing, and
 2. finding, assessing, integrating, and documenting sources.
- 3) Gain awareness of available campus resources.

Activity Map

	SLO 1	SLO 2	SLO 3
Individual Tutoring Sessions	X	X	X
Workshops	X	X	X
WC Website		X	X
WC Space	X		X

Writing Center

Student Learning Outcomes for Consultants

Consultants will:

- 1) Promote an understanding of writing as a social act that can be realized through active engagement with the writing process.
- 2) Acquire skills and experiences that are transferable to careers both in and out of academia by working in a multi-tiered complex working environment that demands management, teamwork, and delegation.
- 3) Develop skills for working with any writer at any stage of the writing process.
- 4) Support and encourage diverse cultural knowledge basis.

Activity Map

	SLO 1	SLO 2	SLO 3	SLO 4
WC Orientation	X	X	X	X
Practice Tutoring Sessions / Shadowing	X	X	X	X
WC Meeting:
Readings	X	X		X
Discussion	X	X	X	X
Practice Sessions	X	X	X	X
Workshop Development		X	X	X