

6. Rehabilitation Counseling Curriculum Map -The University of Hawai'i at Mānoa - Rehabilitation Counselor Education Program has incorporated the curriculum standards developed by our accreditation body, the Council on Rehabilitation Education (CORE) into the following program standards [Note: I (Introduce), R (Reinforce), P (Practice), and M (Mastery)]. Students in the RCE Program will:

Program Standards	605	606	627	628	629	637	680	681	683	685	686	688	703	733	734	781	684 (Elect)	687 (Elect)
Define and develop a professional identity and the practice of ethical behavior		I		R	R	R	R		R	R	R		P	P	M			R
Integrate into practice an understanding of the psychosocial aspects of disability and cultural diversity	I				R	I	R	R					P	P	M
Articulate a working knowledge of human growth and development and the needs of individuals with disabilities across the lifespan	I	R				R	R	R					P	P	M
Demonstrate an understanding of employment and career development issues and strategies for individuals with disabilities			I				R			R		R	P	P	M			R
Identify and demonstrate counseling approaches and principles pertinent to the field of vocational rehabilitation.		I					I		R	R			P	P	M		P
Demonstrate an understanding of theories and principles of group work and family dynamics					I					R			P	P	P
Develop an understanding of and utilize assessment resources and methods in the rehabilitation process			R	I		R	R			R	R		P	P	M
Demonstrate an understanding of basic research methods and program evaluation				I		R				R				P	M			