

GA Work Load Beyond 20 Hours Per Week

During Instructional Period

GAs are advised to consider carefully the potential effects of additional work load on their ability to maintain satisfactory academic performance.

All GA's who wish to work more than 20 hours per week must complete and file the petition to work more than 20 hours with Graduate Division Student Services. GAs who are international students also need to obtain approval from the International Student Services. Unauthorized work beyond 20 hours per week may result in the loss of an assistantship. GA's are advised to carefully consider the potential effects of additional work load on their ability to maintain satisfactory academic progress.

During Non-Instructional Periods

GAs may work up to 40 hours per week during non-instructional periods (between semesters and during the summer).
