Aloha UH 'ohana,

The new federal administration in recent weeks has released numerous Executive Orders and directives that impact our university community in a variety of ways. Today, we announce our New Federal Policy Information and Resources webpage to provide you with up-to-date information and resources as the situation evolves.

This webpage will serve as a centralized hub for the latest news, guidance and FAQs to support UH faculty, staff and students. Some resources listed on the page are still in development and will be made available as soon as possible.

The page will be updated regularly as information becomes available. If you have questions or feedback, please email news@hawaii.edu.

With aloha,

Wendy Hensel
UH President
