Community Standards

Our on-campus residential communities are places in which all people should feel welcome, valued, and safe. A climate of fear or intimidation is not acceptable. All community members deserve to be treated with respect.

The university believes in zero tolerance for sex/gender based misconduct. The Office of Title IX has the specific responsibility for providing prompt and effective responses to all complaints of sex discrimination or harassment for faculty, staff and students. For detailed information, access the website of the Office of Title IX at: https://www.uhm.hawaii.edu/titleix/index.html.

For details on the community standards related to sex/gender based misconduct, refer to the section: 4. Assault/Harassment/Discrimination, 4-A. Sex Discrimination.

1. Alcohol

All residents are expected to know and comply with all State laws and guidelines regarding the consumption of alcoholic beverages on University premises as outlined in the University policies (EP11.201 and EP11.202) and the Community Standards. University policies can be found at: http://hawaii.edu/policy/. The legal drinking age in the State of Hawai`i is 21 years of age.

A. Residents and/or guests who are not of legal drinking age may not possess, consume or be under the influence of alcohol. Possession of an open or empty alcohol container shall be interpreted as being consumed. If alcohol can be seen, smelled or otherwise determined to be present, it can be assumed that a policy violation has occurred.

B. Residents of legal drinking age may possess or consume alcohol within the privacy of their room or apartment, so long as ALL occupants of the room/apartment are of legal drinking age. Any guests present must also be of legal drinking age. University or Student Housing Services staff, acting in their official capacity, may request a government-issued picture identification to verify resident(s) and/or guest(s) ages.

C. Alcohol must be consumed within the confines of the resident’s room/apartment. Any and all alcohol outside the room/apartment is strictly prohibited, including, but not limited to, hallways, in parking lots, courtyards, and BBQ areas. Containers of alcohol that are transported through common areas must remain unopened. If the room/apartment door is open, the room/apartment is considered a common area.

D. Misuse of or abuse of alcohol, regardless of where it is consumed, which results in disruptive or destructive behavior, is prohibited.

E. Anyone who is 21 years of age or older is prohibited from distributing alcohol to anyone below the legal drinking age. The State of Hawai`i’s Social Host Liability Law makes it illegal to host underage drinking in a residence. Adults can be prosecuted for giving alcohol to minors. Resident hosts will be held responsible for distributing alcohol to anyone, resident and/or guest, under the age of 21.

F. Drinking games or any activity that promotes excessive consumption, whether or not alcohol is involved, are strictly prohibited.

G. Common source containers are strictly prohibited and will be confiscated. Common source containers include, but are not limited to, kegs, party balls, water jugs, jungle juice, and beer bongs.

H. The sale of alcohol for a form of payment, donation, or other benefit is prohibited. The advertisement of parties/gatherings where alcohol will be consumed is not allowed.

2. Appliances

A. Use of cooking appliances such as sandwich makers, George Foreman grills, coffee makers, and toasters is strictly prohibited in residence hall rooms, but may be stored in residence hall rooms for use in community kitchen areas. When possible, appliances should have an “auto shut off” feature and be energy star compliant.

B. Personal appliances such as irons and hair dryers must be used for their intended purpose and never left on and unattended.

C. Microwaves must not exceed a stated FCC rating of 700 watts, and the FCC rating placard must be intact. Microwaves must also be plugged directly into a wall outlet and must be energy star compliant. For the residence halls, only one microwave is allowed per bedroom. For the apartment complexes (Hale Noelani and Hale Wainani), only one microwave is allowed per apartment.

D. Refrigerators are permitted according to the following guidelines: 1) be a maximum of 4.5 cubic feet; 2) must be Underwriter Laboratory (UL) approved, 3) must be energy star compliant, 4) must be plugged directly into a wall outlet, and 5) must be kept clean and sanitary. In addition, only one refrigerator is allowed per bedroom. For Frear Hall and the apartment complexes (Hale Noelani and Hale Wainani), no refrigerators are allowed in the common areas (except for the refrigerator in the Hale Noelani and Hale Wainani kitchens that is provided by Student Housing Services).

E. Any appliance with an open heating element not covered in these policies is prohibited for use or storage in residence hall rooms. Student Housing Services reserves the right to confiscate and/or require the removal of any appliance that exceeds wattage or space requirements, or that is otherwise deemed to be a safety hazard.

F. Extension cords are not permitted for use in residence hall and apartment facilities.

3. Arson

Arson is any willful or malicious burning or attempt to burn, with or without intent to defraud, a dwelling house, public building, motor vehicle or aircraft, personal property of another, etc. and is strictly prohibited.

4. Assault/Harassment/Discrimination

A. Sex Discrimination (Incidents such as Sexual Assault, Sexual Harassment, Stalking, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence)

A-1. Sexual Assault: Under Hawaii laws, a person commits sexual assault, including but not limited to, when the person knowingly or recklessly subjects another person to an act of nonconsensual sexual penetration or sexual contact. This includes knowingly engaging in the behavior with a person who is unable to give consent due to incapacitation, intellectual disability, and age. Sexual assault also includes statutory rape, indecent exposure, and voyeurism or trespassing on property to engage in surreptitious surveillance for sexual gratification. Sexual assault can be committed by men or women and can occur between persons of the same or different sex. Refer to UH Policy EP1.204 for detailed information.

A-2. Sexual Harassment is unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and any other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when it is severe or pervasive and has the purpose or effect of either unreasonably interfering with the individual?s work or academic performance, or which creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work or educational environment. Refer to UH Policy EP1.204 for detailed information.

A-3 Dating Violence is violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the reporting party?s statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse. Refer to UH Policy EP1.204 for detailed information.

A.4 Domestic Violence is a crime of violence committed by a: current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim; a person with whom the victim shares a child in common; a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner; a person similarly situated to a spouse. Refer to UH Policy EP1.204 for detailed information.

A-5 Stalking is engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for their safety or the safety of others or suffer substantial emotional distress. ?Course of conduct? means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, unwelcome acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device or means (including cyberstalking) follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about, a person, or interferes with a person?s property. Refer to UH Policy EP1.204 for detailed information.

A-6 Retaliation is adverse actions taken against a person because of their participation in the following types of protected activities: 1) seeking advice or assistance about a discrimination concern or possible incident of sexual violence; 2) opposing or filing an informal or formal complaint against conduct reasonably believed to constitute discrimination or sexual violence; or 3) testifying, assisting, or participating in an investigation or other proceeding related to a complaint of discrimination or sexual violence. Refer to UH Policy EP1.204 for detailed information.

B. Harassment: Harassment is defined as repeated tormenting or irritating another individual, which interferes with the individual?s performance or living environment.

C. Written/Verbal Abuse: Statements which threaten or intimidate another member of the community are not tolerated. This includes, but is not limited to, statements made in person, via telephone, on a whiteboard, and/or via any electronic medium.

D. Physical Abuse/Assault: Physical Assault is defined as the act or instance which endangers the physical safety of another individual or group.

E. Use of a Weapon or Threat of Weapon Use: Any use or threat of use of a weapon is considered a violation of this policy.

F. Discrimination: Discrimination is any conduct that is based upon race, sex, age, religion, ethnicity, national origin, ancestry, disability, marital status, arrest and court record, sexual orientation, veteran status, and/or any other aspect of identity that has the intent or effect of interfering with an individual?s educational or work performance.

G. Hate Crimes/Bias Incidents: Hate crimes or bias incidents include non-threatening name calling and using degrading language, graffiti or slurs because of a belief or perception about a person?s race, ethnicity, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, ability, sexual orientation or gender identity and gender expression, and/or other aspect of identity. Incidents may also include actions against persons both physical and psychological, actions against property, and actions committed verbally and electronically.

5. Barbecue Grills

Residents must barbecue within the designated barbecue areas only. See the Community Desk for reservations and instructions concerning community barbeque grills.
6. Behavioral Misconduct/Complicity

A. Behavior that threatens, harms, or places others in danger or conduct which is disorderly is prohibited.

B. If a resident is present during a policy violation, the resident may be held responsible for alleged policy violation(s).

7. Bicycles, Coasting Devices, Skates, Skateboards, Scooters, Mopeds

A. Bicycles, scooters, or mopeds may not be brought into resident rooms and apartments, with the exception of collapsible bicycles that can be stored without blocking any exits to the room/apartment and that do not infringe on roommates? space in the room/apartment. Motorized equipment containing fuel may not be stored in rooms/apartments at any time.

B. Bicycles, coasting devices (such as hover boards), skates, skateboards, scooters, or mopeds are not to be parked or ridden in public pedestrian areas (including hallways, walkways, and courtyards) or in any area marked as ?no riding? or ?no parking? zones. Student Housing Services reserves the right to immediately remove any bicycle or moped locked to poles, railings, or other places not specifically designated for bicycle or moped parking or securing. Any bicycles, skates, skateboard, scooter, or mopeds that are left or abandoned after checkouts will be disposed of at Student Housing Service?s discretion.

8. Cleaning Responsibilities

A. Individual living spaces: To ensure a safe, healthy environment, a reasonable level of cleanliness is expected in individual living spaces and community areas. If the environment in an individual living space is deemed unhealthy, the resident(s) responsible for that space will be required to clean or be billed for the cost to return the space to a healthy level.

B. Common (Community) Areas: To ensure a safe, healthy environment, a reasonable level of cleanliness is expected in common areas such as community restrooms, hallways, lanais, lounges, and lobbies. While Student Housing Services provides regular cleaning services, a community that fails to keep common spaces reasonably clean may lose privileges to that space or receive a community bill for costs associated with pest treatment, repairs, and/or cleaning. Trash left in common areas may result in community billing.

9. Common Area Guidelines/Loitering

Common area guidelines are those that govern any area other than a residence hall room or apartment.

A. Loitering: If at any time Student Housing Services staff or their designees, such as Department of Public Safety officers, determines that a common area needs to be cleared of residents and guests or determines that an activity does not comply with Community Standards, residents must comply with staff requests.

B. Gatherings: Student Housing Services staff reserves the right to ask resident hosts to discontinue any gathering that does not comply with Community Standards.

C. Common Area Games: The playing of outdoor type sports and games is prohibited in interior and exterior common areas (such as hallways, lanais, walkways, courtyards) in order to prevent disruption to the community and/or damage to University property.

D. Drones: Unmanned aircraft and/or recreational model aircraft cannot be flown on Student Housing Services property in order to prevent disruption to the community and/or damage to University property.
10. Failure to Comply

Students must comply with a University or Student Housing Services official’s request when such official is working within the performance of their duties. This policy is in place in the interior of all residential and dining facilities as well in the surrounding areas including, but not limited to, parking lots, courtyards, grounds, and walkways.

A. Students are required to carry their identification with them at all times while on campus. When requested by a University or Student Housing Services official, residents and guests must present proper identification. Anyone who does not provide this information will be required to leave the housing premises immediately and may be banned from future visitations.

B. Providing false or misleading information about self, others or situations to a University or Student Housing Services official is prohibited.

C. Failure to follow instructions during an incident or any other action that prevents or attempts to prevent a University or Student Housing Services official from successfully completing their responsibilities is prohibited.

D. Failure to complete an assigned conduct sanction within the timeframe assigned is considered a violation of policy and will result in further conduct action.

E. Residents must comply with all University and Student Housing Services posted signs and placards (i.e., no smoking signs, restroom gender designation, etc.)

11. Firearms, Weapons, Explosives

Possession of any type of firearm, weapon, explosives, or other hazardous material is not allowed in or around the on-campus housing communities. This policy also incorporates “toy” weapons, including, but not limited to, any “toy” that shoots a projectile; such as an air soft gun, paintball gun, BB gun, pellet gun, water gun or a slingshot. Knives that have blades longer than 3 inches, and/or are not intended for use as a tool, are also prohibited. Other prohibited items include, but are not limited to: bows and arrows, axes, spears, machetes, crossbows, crossbow bolts, nunchucks, kendo sticks, ammunition, and throwing stars. Student Housing Services reserves the right to confiscate or require the removal of any item deemed dangerous in a community living environment.

12. Furniture

A. Residents must be aware that vacant spaces within a room or apartment are subject to assignment at any time. Vacant spaces must be left clear and must contain the appropriate furnishings at all times.

B. Room or Apartment Furniture: All furniture must remain in the designated locations. Missing furniture will be the responsibility of the residents of that room or apartment; replacement costs will be assessed. Furniture that is moved within the room or apartment and is damaged or damages the walls, floor or other furnishings will be the responsibility of the residents of that room or apartment; damage, repair or replacement charges will be assessed. Unless an exception is approved by the Residence Director extra furniture is not permitted.

C. Common Area Furniture: Lounge and other common area furniture cannot be brought into resident’s rooms or apartments. All furniture must remain in the designated locations.
13. Guests and Visitation Policy

A guest is defined as a person other than the registered residents of that particular residence hall room/apartment. Residents are allowed to host guests in their rooms so long as they have the permission of their roommate(s). Violating a roommate’s right of entry or hindering a roommate’s ability to study and/or sleep within their room is considered a violation of guest privileges. Guests will be held responsible for following all Student Housing Services policies and any applicable Community or Roommate Agreements on file with a Student Housing Services staff member.

A. Host Responsibility: Residents must escort guests at all times while guests are on housing premises and are responsible and accountable for the behavior of their guests. All conduct matters concerning a non-resident student of the University will be forwarded to the Office of Judicial Affairs.

B. Overnight Guests: Residents are permitted to have guests in rooms overnight as long as the roommate has given permission. The maximum guest stay is 72 hours (3 consecutive nights) and a resident may have guests a maximum of ten (10) nights per semester whether or not there is a vacant bed space in the room/apartment. Resident hosts will be held accountable for any policy violations committed by guests. Student Housing Services reserves the right to require any guests who cause a community disruption to immediately leave campus.

C. Cohabitation: Cohabitation is not allowed in the residence halls and apartments. Cohabitation is defined as a person using a room or apartment as if that person were living in the room, but not actually being assigned as a resident of that room. Examples of this may include, but are not limited to, keeping clothing and other personal belongings in the room, sleeping overnight in the room on a regular basis and using the bathroom and shower facilities as if they were living in that room.

D. Subletting: per housing assignment policies and contracts, subletting is strictly prohibited.

14. Illegal Drugs/Controlled Substances

All residents are expected to know and comply with all State laws and guidelines regarding illegal drugs and controlled substances on University premises as outlined in the University Policy (EP11.201) and the Community Standards. University policies can be found at: http://hawaii.edu/policy/.

A. Consumption of illegal drugs, or illegal use of controlled substances, is prohibited. If illegal drugs are seen, smelled or otherwise determined to be present, it can be assumed that a policy violation has occurred.

B. Possession of illegal drugs or improperly obtained controlled substances is prohibited.

C. Possession of drug paraphernalia is prohibited (i.e., bongs, rolling paper, etc.).

D. Disrupting the community while under the influence of illegal drugs, regardless of where it was consumed, is prohibited.

E. The possession of a medical marijuana card does not allow for the possession or consumption of marijuana within the housing premises.

F. Sale, distribution, and gift of illegal drugs or controlled substances is prohibited.

15. Prohibited Items
In order to maintain a safe living environment, the following types of items are strictly prohibited:

- Tasers.
- Appliances not provided by Student Housing Services, unless otherwise specified in these policies.
- Use of any incendiary device, such as candles, incense, or any device that utilizes an open flame.
- Storage of any flammable liquid, chemical, or other substance.
- Halogen lights/halogen lamps.
- Laser Pointers
- Motor vehicle batteries and acids.
- Hookahs, or similar smoking devices.
- Barbells in excess of 25 lbs each.
- Air conditioners or ceiling fans (in units where they are not already provided).
- Personal lofts or any other structure.

Student Housing Services reserves the right to require removal of any item deemed unsafe for a group living environment and residents can be assessed for any relevant usage, cleaning and/or repair costs.

16. Pets and Service Animals

A. Pets. Fish are allowed in residence halls and apartments. They must be housed in properly equipped aquariums, 20 gallons or smaller, limit one tank per room (one tank per bedroom in the apartments. No other pets are allowed.

B. Service Animals. Residents with appropriate documentation for a service animal or emotional support animal may request permission for the animal to reside with them. These animals must be approved prior to occupancy. For information pertaining to the approval process, please work with the Kokua Program (www.hawaii.edu/kokua) or 808-956-7511).

17. Posting of Signage

A. All posters, flyers, banners and chalking to be used in any common areas must be approved by the Residence Director. Generally, postings are only allowed if they are educational in nature and/or promoting a Residential Life sponsored event. If a resident wishes to post signage for an event sponsored by a University of Hawaii affiliated office or program; and/or advertising for a commercial venture, they must do so in compliance with the Posting Policy. For a copy of the current Posting Policy, see your Residence Director and/or contact the Residential Life Office in Johnson Hall "A" basement, or call 808-956-8300.

B. Student Housing Services reserves the right to require the removal of any signage or symbols posted on the exterior of a room door or posted in a window that is disruptive to the community.

18. Quiet Hours, Noise, and Courtesy Hours

A. Quiet Hours: Quiet hours (the absence of loud noise or distractions) are in effect every evening, from 9:00pm to 8:00am Sunday through Thursday and Midnight to 8:00 am on Friday and Saturday and nights before state holidays in each hall, apartment, and common area.

B. Courtesy Hours: At other times, students are expected to exercise good judgment with respect to making excessive noise that intrudes on the privacy and the needs of others to sleep and study. Noise may be deemed disruptive if it can be heard through a closed door or window. Noise which is disruptive to other residents is prohibited, both inside and outside of residence halls, and courtesy and consideration for others is expected at all times. Residents are expected to respond positively to requests to reduce noise, and to respectfully approach others with requests for noise reduction.

C. Special 24 Hour Quiet Hours: Quiet hours will be in effect during the finals period, including any associated "Study Days" noted in the academic calendar. Flyers will be posted with specific dates.

19. ResNet Policy

Student Housing Services encourages responsible computing. Responsible computing is ethical, reflects academic honesty, and shows restraint in the consumption of shared resources. It demonstrates respect for intellectual property, ownership of data, system security mechanisms, and an individual's right to privacy and freedom from intimidation, harassment and unwarranted annoyance. The ResNet policy has been established to provide a set of rules and guidelines for the proper and responsible use of the University of Hawaii and Student Housing Services computing and network resources, effective protection of individual users, equitable access, and proper management of these resources. These guidelines are intended to supplement, not replace, existing laws, regulations, agreements, policies, and contracts, which currently apply to these services. Users of the Student Housing Services ResNet are bound by the University of Hawaii Executive Policy concerning the Management of Information Technology Resources. The policy can be found at: www.hawaii.edu/infotech/policies/itpolicy.html [8]

ResNet users are additionally bound by the following rules and regulations intended to preserve the integrity and accessibility of all computing resources:

A. Residents are responsible for ensuring that their computers are virus-free and secure before connecting to ResNet. Unintentional violations of ResNet policy due to a compromised computer may still result in sanctions.

B. The residential network may only be used for legal purposes and to access only those systems, software, and data for which the user is authorized. Accessing or providing access to copyrighted material including but not limited to music, movies, and software is prohibited.

C. The residential network is a shared resource. Network uses or applications that inhibit or interfere with the use of the network by others are prohibited. Examples include file sharing applications, E-mail spamming, unauthorized servers, or any other activity that consumes an excessive amount of bandwidth.

D. The residential network is provided for uses consistent with the academic mission of the institution. The network may not be used for commercial purposes or for unsolicited advertising.

E. Data jacks may not be used to provide network access to anyone other than the resident assigned to the data jack. Residents will be held responsible for all traffic passing or originating from their assigned connection. Hardware devices which extend the network such as routers must be secured and properly configured.

F. Servers of any kind are prohibited without authorization from the ResNet personnel. Examples include Web, FTP, Game, and SMTP servers. In addition, many hardware devices such as wireless routers include software components that act as servers and it is the responsibility of the resident to properly configure any such devices before they are connected to the network.

G. The network automatically provides network address information via DHCP. Individuals may use only the IP address assigned to them by Student Housing Services. Unauthorized use of a "fixed" or "static" IP address is prohibited.

H. Any malicious or hostile activities such as port scans, spamming, DOS attacks, or attempts to gain unauthorized access via the network are prohibited.

I. Forgery or other misrepresentation of one's identity via electronic or any other form of communication is prohibited. This includes the use of an IP address not specifically assigned to the individual using it, impersonating another user with the intent to slander in public areas, and the use of a forged or false identity in E-mail communications.

J. Respecting the rights of other users is required at all times on the network. These rights include, but are not limited to, privacy, freedom of expression, and freedom from harassment.

K. Administrators of the residential network have the authority to control or refuse access to the network to anyone who violates these policies or who threatens the rights of other users. Administrators have the authority to restrict or suspend network access without notice for a user or computer that is believed to have been the source of an alleged violation pending investigation of the violation and satisfactory resolution of the complaint.

L. Student Housing Services assumes the responsibility for the maintenance of computing resources provided within Student Housing Services facilities. In the event of a loss of service, all reasonable attempts will be made to restore the connection as quickly as possible. Student Housing Services is not responsible for any damages or losses incurred due to the use of the network or from loss of service. Use of the ResNet constitutes FULL agreement and understanding of this Acceptable Use Policy and any future modifications there to. Violations of this policy may result in termination of connection, disciplinary sanctions, as well as possible legal ramifications. Student Housing Services reserves the right to modify, change, and reformat this document, as it deems necessary without permission or consent of its network users. Copies of this policy will remain available via the ResNet web site.

20. Robbery/Burglary/Theft

A. Theft of Property: Theft of personal property including computer files, programs, and data, or University property and possession of stolen property is prohibited.

B. Theft of Service: Unauthorized borrowing or unauthorized use of any service, including, but not limited to Internet, Cable TV, telephone, telephone calling cards, tampering with telephone and/or cable lines, food service cards, washing/drying machines, food vending machines, etc. is prohibited.

C. Burglary: Unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or a theft. This includes forcible entry, attempted forcible entry and non-forcible entry such as use of an unlocked door or window.

D. Robbery: Taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody or control of a person or persons by force or threat of force or violence.

21. Safety & Security

A. Activating false fire alarms or other false reporting of emergencies is prohibited

B. Tampering with fire or safety equipment is prohibited. This includes hanging anything on or covering smoke detectors and sprinkler pipes, and the tampering with fire pull stations or fire extinguishers. Residents may be charged for replacement and/or repair costs incurred as the result of such behavior.
C. Fire Evacuation: All residents must evacuate at the sound of an alarm regardless of whether they believe it to be false.

D. Locks and Doors: Tampering with or damaging lock mechanisms is prohibited. Additional locks may not be added to doors or other University property or equipment. For the security of everyone, building doors should not be propped open at any time.

E. Unauthorized Entry/Restricted Areas: No person shall enter or attempt to enter any residence hall or apartment facility (including rooms/suites/apartments) without proper authorization. Students are not permitted on residence hall roofs, ledges or overhangs. Students are not permitted to climb in or out of residence hall windows at any level.

F. Misuse of Keys: The possession of keys by anyone other than the person they were issued to is prohibited. Residents are prohibited from ?lending? any keys assigned to them to any other person, including their roommate(s).

G. Lock-outs and Key Replacements: Residents are responsible for carrying their key(s) at all times. Excessive lock-outs (contacting the hall staff for room/apartment entry) and/or replacement keys may result in conduct sanctions and fines.

H. Temporary Lighting: Temporary light installations, such as string lights or decorative holiday lighting, shall be permitted between November 15 and January 15 only. In order to be complaint with Honolulu Fire Code, temporary lighting installations are not permitted during any other time of year, and any products used must be UL approved.

I. If a resident student has not been seen on campus for more than 24 hours and acquaintances do not know where the student may be, please notify Department of Public Safety at 808-956-6911. Students under the age of 18 will have their parents notified if they are determined missing for more than 24 hours and law enforcement may be notified for any student missing for more than 24 hours. If a resident over 18 years of age is deemed to be missing, the University will, at its discretion, contact the Confidential Contact and/or the Emergency Contact on file. If a student has been seen in the company of an individual(s) indicating that he/she may be in danger, Department of Public Safety and/or the Honolulu Police Department (call 911), should be notified immediately.

22. Smoking, Smoking Devices, Tobacco

All residents are expected to know and comply with all State laws and guidelines regarding the possession and consumption of tobacco products and smoking devices (Hawaii Revised Statutes 328J, effective January 1, 2016).

A. Residents and/or guests under twenty-one years of age may not possess or consume any tobacco products in a public place. Tobacco products include any product made or derived from tobacco that contains nicotine or other substances and is intended for human consumption or is likely to be consumed whether smoked, heated, chewed, absorbed, dissolved, inhaled or ingested.

B. Tobacco products in any shape or form or electronic smoking devices may not be sold to or furnished to a person under twenty-one years of age.

C. All residence halls and apartments are smoke-free and the smoking of any substance via any device (including electronic cigarettes) is prohibited. Smoking is also prohibited in: 1) interior building courtyards, breezeways, and terraces, on exterior spaces and access ramps, and outdoor dining patios, terraces, and lanais; 2) within 20 feet of building entrances, exits, air intake ducts, vents, and windows of buildings that are not air conditioned.

Information on the university smoke-free initiative can be found at: http://manoa.hawaii.edu/smokefree

23. Solicitation & Sales

Solicitation and sales are not permitted in any Student Housing Services facility by residents or non-residents except by authorization from the Director of Student Housing Services or a designee. Such authorization may be made only for items which are of service to the residents and only after a written request has been submitted and reviewed. Students may not act as agents for business firms which entail solicitations or receiving of business offers or goods on University property. University or Student Housing Services communication systems may not be used for selling or offers to sell merchandise, services, etc. Student residences may not be used for business purposes of any nature. Examples of violations include, but are not limited to: posting of materials/advertising in any format without prior approval; using the residence hall/apartment address for business purposes; using the room/apartment for storage and/or distribution of goods or collection of monies; receipt and distribution of business related materials via the community desk/mailroom; the use of University or Student Housing Services technology resources for business purposes. Residents must also comply with all University policies.

24. Vandalism

Vandalism is willful or malicious destruction of property. Students may be assessed restitution for any damages incurred. Damage assessments are based on the cost (materials and labor) to restore to the original state through repair/replacement of the damaged item or area.

Group Assessment: Group assessments may be charged for any vandalism damages to unit/common areas. In situations where the individual(s) does not come forward to claim responsibility, a group assessment may be levied. The group assessment fee (minimum $1.00) will include the cost of repairing/replacing the damaged item(s) and the cost of labor (if applicable). When possible, residents will be notified of damage costs and possible group assessments through public notices.

25. Windows, Balconies/Lanais, Ledges and Building Exteriors

A. Throwing/discarding of items of any type from windows, balconies/lanais, and ledges is strictly prohibited.

B. Windows and screens may not be removed. Residents may be assessed charges for the replacement/repair of windows and screens. Sliding screens must be closed at all times.

C. Erecting of antennas/aerials/satellite dishes or any other objects on the exterior of buildings or grounds is prohibited.

D. Placing, hanging, or storing items outside of a window or on window ledges is prohibited.

Student Housing Services is a program of the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa
