PREFERRED FIRST NAME: __________________________

By signing below, I understand and agree to the following:

Refer to EP 7.302 Preferred Name Policy - to support students who have a preferred name, such as Hawaiian name, an international name, or a name that is concurrent with their gender identity. This policy is limited to first name and not surname or family name. UH will make every effort to display preferred first name to the University community where feasible and appropriate and make a good faith effort to update records, documents, and systems. Preferred name will appear on UH ID card, class roster, and directories such as Lvaluation, and STAR.

UH reserves the right to deny or remove, with or without notice, any preferred name for misuse, including but not limited to fraud, misrepresentation, attempting to avoid legal obligation, or the use of highly offensive or derogatory name.

Legal name will still be used on certain records, including official transcripts, diploma, paychecks, payroll records, enrollment verifications, medical records, financial aid documents and other records, which require use of an official name of record.

• Special Characters are not possible at this time.
• Replacement fee for changes may apply to issue a new ID card.
• Approved changes may take five to seven business days to take effect.

Changes to UH username and/or UH email account can be made to the UH ITS Help Desk or call (808) 956-8883 (Oahu) or [1-800] 956-2669 (Neighbor Islands), or email help@hawaii.edu.

AS A TRANSGENDER STUDENT, CAN I BE PLACED IN CAMPUS HOUSING ACCORDING TO MY GENDER IDENTITY?

Yes, you have that right because the University of Hawai‘i is committed to implementing best practices related to Title IX guidance. UH is moving toward gender-inclusive housing practices.

Hawai‘i state law prohibiting gender discrimination in public accommodations (Haw. Rev. Stat. § 489-3 referenced above) also protects this right.

If you or someone you know has been denied gender appropriate housing, please contact a CONFIDENTIAL advocate on your campus to explore your rights & resources by clicking here.

Or, if you feel ready to report, click here for contact info for your Title IX Coordinator.
