Chronology of the George Shannon McCune Collection

1905 - 1909

G. S. McCune was sent to Korea as an educational missionary of the Pyeongyang Missionary Section. McCune helped Rev. W.M. Baird and participated in the management of the "Three Sung" (Sungsil, Sungsil Junior High School, and Sungsil Women's Junior High School), and served as Principal of Sungdok School.

Archive includes:

1. Materials on McCune's activities as a faculty member at Union Christian College
2. Materials on education plans on Park Junior Academy and Park College
3. Educational materials from 1910 - 1919
4. Materials for language training and settlement of mission work
5. Materials and reports on the missionary activities in Pyeongyang
6. Materials on the protection of Koreans against the Japanese troops

1909 - 1921

George Shannon McCune became Principle of the Hugh O'Neill Junior Academy in 1909. As soon as McCune assumed this position, he made efforts to develop the school with a donation from Hugh O'Neill of the United States.

He was involved in the Korean Conspiracy Case and supported the Korean Christians and students. He even appeared in Court to advocate the Christians and his students. He became one of the well-known anti-Japanese evangelists in the Kwanso region in Korea. He also became involved in many activities of the nationalist movement during the period.
