LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

All Hawaii is more bubbling in the political pot as the time of municipal elections draws near. Filing of nominations for local primary elections closed at midnight, Sept. 23, with about 200 candidates filing names as follows:

- For County Attorney: A. L. C. Akahai, Honolulu; Thomas H. Higa, Hilo;
- For Sheriff: Edward Kau, Sunset W. Bailey, Republican; Daniel W. S. Young, Democrat.

In the absence of regular text-books, which are yet incomplete for use, the school is unable to present the full scope of its educational work. The textbooks will be procured at the earliest possible moment.

- For Public Schools: Mary L. Childs, principal; W. Y. A. Ku, assistant principal; T. Y. K. K.iling, principal; W. Y. A. Ku, assistant principal; and E. M. Kim, assistant principal.

A smoke 15-inch bomb was found inside Honolulu's residence building. It is believed that the bomb was planted in the vicinity of the building by a member of the Japanese military, who was later arrested and charged with the crime.

Hiking To Kaliki Valley Today

Hike! Yes, that's what makes life interesting. Early this morning, two schoolboys started off on a hike to explore the trails leading to the historic Kaliki Valley. The hike was a success, and the boys reported back to their schoolmates that they had a wonderful time.

EDITORIAL SPEAKING
CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS.

Four hundred twenty-one years ago yesterday Christopher Columbus discovered America. There is something for us to learn from this significant event. Some say that this nation obtained its birth with the declaration of independence and rightly do they claim it. But I am of the better opinion that America technically entered into life with the advent of Columbus in 1492—and you all know the reason why.

Passing as we do to reflect upon the meaning of this occasion, our thought runs more deeply to the heart of the nation, who made the history. Yes, a bold, fearless sailor, possessed of the heart of oak and a mind of steel, never nayng, never relaxing nor stumbling from his once firmly set purpose.

That, gentlemen, was the spirit of the Columbus.

Hilo Attracts Large Number Of Students

Hilo Attracts Large Number Of Students

Hiola students need not fear that the end of the school year means the end of their educational life. This is the sentiment expressed by Dona Rosa, our official correspondent from the Big Island.

Thus he goes on: "To follow the aged American, as at the Hilo High, it is necessary to divide them into two distinct groups: the retired and the junior high school, while the Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors may be divided into two blocks above the old high school block.

There is a notable rivalry between the seniors and the juniors. This rivalry is taken more seriously by the seniors because of their higher position in the school and their desire to maintain it. It is also a source of joy to the juniors because it gives them something to strive for. The seniors take pride in their uniforms, while the juniors are more interested in their grades.

Aside from these, there are several foreign students in the school. There are students from China, Japan, Korea, India, and the Philippines.

K. C. I. ALUMNI ASS'N ELECTS OFFICERS

About one hundred members of the K. C. I. Alumni Association gathered at the Alumni House last Sunday afternoon to elect new officers for the coming year. Miss Bessie Park was re-elected as president. The meeting was conducted by Mr. William Y. Lee, the executive secretary of the association.

L. H. B. K. Y. LAUNCHED:

L. H. B. K. Y. launched its plan to establish a fundamental in Christian education in this territory. The scheme is: to establish a fund to aid in the purchase of land and buildings, and to provide for the salaries of the teachers.

Some other new ideas for the future include: a radio station, a weekly newspaper, and a library.

The principle of "knocking" another to aggravate one's own cherished ends, is nauseating to say the least. Why can't we let the public decide for themselves independantly as to who is a better man for an office than he and tell us? The whole principle is wrong. Let us look forward to the day when men shall do away with all beastly instincts and transact business, political or commercial, upon the basis of justice and fair play.

여러분 여러분, 오늘 아침, 나는 이 도시의 한 카페에서 일어섰다. 이곳은 한강변에 위치한 아름다운 장소였고, 아침의 풍경을 보며 나는 주요한 생각에 잠이 들었다.

이 도시에서 생활하는 이들은 하나같이 매일같이 일어나 일에 임한다. 그들은 각자의 일정을 따르며, 각자의 역할을 충실히 맡는다. 이들은 모두 각자의 꿈을 향해 나아가고 있다.

그렇다면 우리는 왜 그런지 모르는가? 이 도시의 경제적 성장은 어떻게 이뤄졌을까? 그 와중에 인간의 삶은 어떻게 변화한 것인가? 이 모든 것이 그들의 생활과 굳이 연결되어 있는가?

저는 이런 생각에 대해 좀 더 깊게 생각해보았다. 이 도시의 경제적 성장은 인간의 삶과 그들의 생활과 굳이 연결되어 있는가? 이 모든 것이 그들의 생활과 굳이 연결되어 있는가?

President Yum called the first best season in a long time. The program was held in the auditorium of the Yves Association. There were about 200 people present, and there were temporary junior officials. Their main duty was to prepare the program for carrying on the work of the Federation for the coming year.

The committee members and the members present for each of the committees were:

I. Committee on Revision of Constitution:
   - Dang, K. L.
   - Hong, R. E.
   - Yee, T. C.

II. Committee on Finance:
   - Ching, Alexander
   - Suen, W.
   - Kim, Y. D.

III. Committee on Goodwill Activities:
   - Lin, B. C.
   - Yung, Andrew
   - Suen, Leo D.

IV. Committee on Special Activities:
   - Kim, Mong
   - Park, Kung
   - Kim, H. Yung

The subject in view is the selection of the committee in such a maner that we have each and every one of the delegates participate in the part to the participation of the convention. After having assured that everyone present would be able to read and understand all the new points of the above named committees, the following were adopted:

A. New administration

At 7:30 in the evening, President Yum called the meeting to order. The committee members discussed the agenda of the meeting and recommended that a session of comments be held. After much discussion it was decided that each member pay $1 per session, and a little more for each. It was agreed that the publication, which shall be treated later.

At this point, Dr. Philip Jason was called upon to speak. He spoke in a confidential manner and all present, except the members themselves, were not able to hear him. Therefor, as a people are mostly good, but badness seldom shows itself always. We must cooperate and fight, fight, fight, and sacrifice ourselves for a noble cause.

GENERAL BUSINESS SESSION.
June 26, 8 a.m.
Place: Roosevelt Theatre.

By President Yum's request the meeting came to order. Before proceeding with the business of the evening before a number of telegrams, cards and letters of greeting from Deaver, Hawaii, etc., were turned to the audience. Due to more press of business, it was decided that the proposals contained in the message from the Young Korean Club of Hawaii be left to the President himself, who shall use his discretion in approving them.

This done, Mr. B. C. Lihm, chairman of the committee of publication, laid before the meeting his plan of the future publication of the following issues. It was recommended that the monthly take from this year to publish a semi-monthly, once in Korea and once in English. It also recommended that the vice-president of the editor of the Korean edition, and Mr. B. C. Lihm to act as business manager. All other members of the editor-staff were to be personally appointed by these boards.

The next important item in the meeting was the acceptance of the constitution of the committee on Revision of Constitution. Having found that there was no need for any additions to its articles, the chairman laid before the board the next day what sort of discussion was accepted as a whole. Last to give a report was the executive committee. These recommendations were read and accepted and the meeting adjourned at 11:30 p.m.

Thursday evening, June 26th.
Place: Washington Cafe.

At Washington Dexter the Committee were presented to a genuine Kung noodle first class, which the latter enjoyed immensely. After the fair trial the meeting was held at the spot to give a final finishing touch to all business transacted during the conference. First was the hearing of the treasurer's report. Next, the secretary read the minutes of the convention of the whole. After the adjourned committee was made, it was voted to be adopted, and that a copy of the minutes be sent to all members of the association. Having appreciated the spirit of cooperation shown by American Society, a special vote was cast, a letter of thanks be sent to Dr. Philip Jason, and a present of Hyde Park Women's Auxiliary for the effort and sympathy shown in preparing entertainment.

President Yum then announced the committee of publication, the chairman, in the following: Vice-President, I. C. Park, Executive Secretary, L. C. Park, Advisory Secretary, Y. K. Kim, and Treasurer, Andrew Hyun. This done the Conference adjourned at 11 p.m.
