Enlarged Number of the Student Bulletin Is Out

September number of the main -I. H. Student Bulletin, a publication in English of the mainland students, has reached the Young Korean office this morning. Remarks, this will be the second annual meeting of the Student Korean Federation, held in cooperation with the Student Alliance. It will be preceded by 12 neatly printed pages full of information concerning the activities of the students in the mainland West and East. It also contains many interesting articles from home and abroad, Prof. Frederick Starr, Harry Whang, the First Methodist church of California, and H. A. Harkness choir, etc.

American and notable articles of this issue, Prof. S. R. Kerr’s analysis of Korean culture under the caption "Korean Culture Must Be Preserved" and Prof. Phineas J. Bower’s letter to the editor, "The Temple of Faoust" deserve creditable mention. Beautifully written and well printed, it is a magazine fit for food for serious thought.

The student body, which occupied the last 5 pages, reveal much timely information regarding the progress of the various colleges and university students and graduates, of which there are over 200 on the mainland now. Here the names of many Hawaiian sons and daughters who are making a name for themselves.

Editor's Note: The Korean Student Alliance, a branch of the Student Alliance, is being sponsored by the Committee on Friendly Relations Among Foreign Students of the Metropolitan Board of the New York City under the editorship of Mr. K. S. Yun, the President of the Korean Student Association and the Student Federation of North America, and the American Federation of North America. The new president of the Alliance Federation, it practically serves the same purpose, just as the Young Korean, though not an organ of the Hawaiian Student Alliance, assumes the same function.

THE ROCKY MAGAZINE TO MAKE APPEARANCE SOON

The Rocky Magazine, in the Korean Student Federation of North America which is being printed in Korea, will make its appearance before the end of this year, according to Dr. Paul A. Auh, editor of the magazine.

Many prominent men of public affairs have contributed special articles to this Magazine. Dr. Ehr, Dr. Jaisohn, Dr. R. S. Kim, K. V. and Mr. H. S. Kim are some of them, says Dr. Auh.

Concerning other features of the publication, the editor concludes: "There will be also some interesting articles about the American, which will be very tempting and appealing to our brothers and sisters in the Land of Morning Calm. Moreover this number will contain a complete and comprehensive schedule on this continent, giving their names, home, and present address, academic standings and their major subjects."
President's Timely Message To Officers and Members of Alliance

To Officers,

There has been a change in the organization of the Alliance.
You have been selected as trustees of the new organization with the full and understanding consent of every member. Your duty is clear. The Alliance expects you to strengthen the executive committee, which so far obstructed the progress of the Alliance, in preparation for a level of responsibility and in a period of prosperity and safety.

How are you going to do it? Pool your arms and look like me. I think a good place to start is to get real on probation and if for any reason the Alliance shall fail to make a substantial progress, that decision shall be made by one who is more capable. Whether I wear an official cap or re-new a plain “petite” makes no difference. As long as I am in Hawaii, the Alliance shall have real Alliance with all my heart, some strength and enthusiasm.

Why? Because I firmly believe in the cause of the Alliance. I feel that it contains a seed of promise for the future gen of Hawaii. I feel that it is already on its way toward fulfilling the intention of the younger generation who shall make the future of Hawaii. Better far than what it is. This an assurance for this promise is, I believe, strengthened by the... in which... the... even the... the... you... students etc. who have never been identified with the society, rally in the support of this organization. Such turn of affairs or fortune, shall we say, was considered a fantastic dream only two years ago and now there the Alliance the spirit of unity and harmony among all young Koreans of Hawaii is actually taking visible form.

You ask me: “What’s the use of Student Alliance?” My answer is just this: “It’s a step towards a better tomorrow. It is a step toward accomplishing the same result except thru the Student Alliance. The Alliance must live. It is the hope of Hawaii. Nothing gold nor diamond can ever save Hawaii. The hope of Hawaii is preserved and transmitted down the vista’s of the years.

It is customary for an incoming president to announce his policies for the new term of office. But before I do so I wish to invite the attention of every member. First, it shall be the principal part of my policy to uphold and maintain the spirit of democratic principles in the conduct of our organization. Often times I have been accused of being autocratic in exercising authority and power. I want to tell you that I do not give. And my reason for this is that it is an essential part of the Alliance’s existence which is founded on the principle of the unity of all members, without distinction of race, religion, or national origin. The Alliance is not a club or a social organization, but it is a political organization of all members, both white and black. It is the responsibility of every member to uphold and defend this principle.

Secondly, it shall be my policy to operate the Student Alliance on a strict business basis. No more fooling around; no more horse tricks. If we are to be successful in our work and work the thing systematically on a business like basis we must have a strict business basis. I will present the following considerations:

1. The Student Alliance shall establish a financial council to which all members, both white and black, shall contribute a certain amount of money each month to be used for the support of the Alliance, the cost of meetings, the printing of literature, and any other expenses that may be necessary.
2. All meetings of the Student Alliance shall be open to the public, and all members, both white and black, shall be entitled to participate in the discussions.
3. The Student Alliance shall establish a library to which all members, both white and black, shall contribute a certain amount of money each month to be used for the purchase of books and literature.

I believe that these considerations will enable the Student Alliance to operate on a strict business basis and at the same time maintain the spirit of unity and harmony among all members.

The Student Alliance, like any other organization, has its weaknesses. But I am confident that with your cooperation and support we can overcome these weaknesses and make the Student Alliance a success.

The old maxim that “nothing beats a good horse” is not true. In this enlightened age, now more than ever, we must be ready to give the horse a helping hand. For so will it be in the Student Alliance.

YOUNG KANG.

How To Speak Correct English

"I got no more strength."—"I have no strength."

(Don't ever use the word "strength" when you mean "strength." The former is an adjective and not a noun.)

"You took sick."—"You took down-hearted.""We go; We see,"—"Let us go!"

"Get my goat!"—"That sure gets my goat!"

"She born baby yesterday."—"She gave birth to a child yesterday.

He been tell me."—"He has told me or he told me." (Here is one expression which the younger folks always misuse. Don't ever use "been" without the introduction "has," "was," "have been," "had been," and "will have been," but don't inject "been" independently.)

"No such two minute he come!"—"He came inside of two minutes" or "if you must use the word "enough," say "not enough.""

The Song That Everybody Sings

CALIFORNIA, HERE I COME
California, here I come,
Right back where I started from.

Where里程, of flowers bloom in the sun,
Each morning, at dawning, birds sing and
Everything; a yonlet miss said: don't delay;
That's why I can hardy wait—
Open up that Golden Gate.
California, here I come!

I'M DRIFTING BACK TO DREAM LAND
I'm drifting back to dreamland.
I'm sure I'll find you there.
With a smile for every tear.
I'm someone but I'm happy.

Where the silver sands of dreamland Meet the sea of memory.

Mrs. Fannie Kang's idea of "young's girls' choir" seems to work out very well. Not only do they respond to practices and instructions more readily than the older boys and girls, but they have given Mrs. Kang, however, hopes to call back the senior members for Christmas chorus in the near future.

Mr. Don Wool Choy, prominent business man, attended the regular weekly meeting of the Epworth League last Sunday evening. His subject was "Business world" which he elaborated into a most interesting and in-depth discussion. He borrowed illustrations from his own personal experiences to back up the statements he made regarding the vital need of commercial development among Korean people.

Society Notes

On the evening of October 22, Mrs. Don Choy gave a delightful party for the parents residence on Punchbowl street in honor of the former whose 40th birthday transpired. A large crowd of old and young people came to share the feast, which was prepared in Korean style.

On that same night, June Lee honored at his house at 615 Capt. Cooke Ave., his old friend, Jacob Yens with Korea feast, which due to the presence of mimosas was very delicious. Besides the three sisters, Marie, Janet, and Eva, the occasion was made merrier by the presence of Mr. Tan, who said little but ate much.

Last Tuesday noon, a group of University graduates dined to-geth at the Numan Y. M. C. A. and honored the three distinguished visitors—Jacob Dunn, Don Whan Choy and Young Woong Oh—whom each gave a brilliant exhibition in college attendance. Among those present on this occasion were: Dr. Y. C. Yang, C. C. Kim, Young Kang, T. C. Lee, Y. W. Oh, and Jacob Duan.

On the night, the St. Luke's church was the scene of an attractive social even given by the church choir. M. L. Choy and Miss Jennie Kim acted as host and hostess during the evening. The program consisted chiefly of musical numbers and games, while the speech of any kind was a complete absence. The Big Night Society of K. C. T. held an attractive Halloween party at the school last night and a happy time was enjoyed by all those fortunate enough to attend. Miss Daise Whing, provided.
