HISTORY OF KOREAN JOURNALISM
CHAPTER IV

THE FIRST KOREAN NEWSPAPER

By C.S. Pl.

Prior to 1885, there was no periodical of any sort for the Korean people. It was not until the French, when the Japanese influence was be ginning to take hold in Korea, that Korea had already established mili tary gatherings in the north, while in the south, it had a desire to have a place to print and to provide a forum for the exchange of ideas. The national danger of Korea was becoming more and more evident.

In the early part of 1885, a few Koreans, under the leadership of Dr. J. N. Kim, established the first Korean newspaper, the "Korean Daily News". The newspaper was entitled "Three Hips, Three Sitting, Three Rising!"

Displacing the brand of rice, the Korean Daily News was the first to use Korean script.

The newspaper was well received by the Korean community and became a symbol of Korean pride and national identity.

THE MEETING OF THE FRIENDS

Christianity makes rapid progress in Korea, says H. Welch.

Field for Missionary Work in Korea is Large, Is Bishop's Opinion

CHRISTIANITY MAKES RAPID PROGRESS IN KOREA, SAYS H. WELCH

Christian ideals, principles, and standards have progressed more rapidly in Korea than in other Asiatic countries, in the opinion of Bishop Joseph W. Welch, who arrived on the Korea Maru, Saturday morning, Feb. 14, to visit Korea during which time he planned to preach at the Methodist church held during Feb. 16-26.

"Although Christianity was introduced into Korea from other Asiatic countries, it has progressed there most rapidly," said Bishop Welch. "The native Korean religion is very primitive, but the Korean is very religious by nature and so they take readily to Christianity. The Christian part of the nation is divided about equally between the Presbyterian and the Methodist denominations. The work for missionary work is large."

There are about 300 foreign missionaries in Korea, all associated with Bishop Welch, including Americans, Canadians, Australians, and some from other countries. The missionaries meet on an anti-fascist front in Korea and outside of Korea and in other places in the Orient, he said.

"A large part of Korea is clearly watched by the Japanese. It is a country where anything is done for the welfare and progress of Korea is keenly appreciated."

Rhymes with Kiss and Heart with Dart, Says St. Valentine Poet

The popular saying "Kiss and Heart with Dart" is a revival of a 150-year-old rhyme which traditionally referred to the supposed power of Valentine's Day. The saying was widely used in the 19th century and continues to be popular today.

Korean Membership Teams Obtain Fifty Men for National Y

More than 500 new members were enrolled as a result of the fifth annual membership campaign of the United Y. M. C. A. which was held March 3 to 6. Here were several teams who competed with each other to get the largest number of new members. The Korean urges did very well in the annual drive with 43 members, 60 members, and 26 members, for a total of 1213 points.

Two Persons Killed in Serious Dispute

A serious fight between Japanese students and Korean laborers took place in Jiyeon, Japan, in which one Japanese was killed and two others injured and one Korean was killed and two Koreans injured, according to a dispatch from Foo, Miye giprak, published in the Seoul Press.

Last week the trouble originated in a dispute between men of Meiji School and three Koreans visiting in one night. Some of the Koreans took shelter in the railway tunnel and made a stand against throwings of dynamite, but outpowered by policemen surrounding them.

Later it is reported that the tumult was cleared of Koreans two days later and they fought after the arrest by the police. A total of 18 men, some who were once arrested for Koreans, were killed by the police, the rest by Korean students. The trouble resulted in the arrest of two Japanese students in the fight.

The Korean Death Frats Win Championship

Korean Delta Frats clinched the basketball championship of the Nuanu Y. M. C. A. when, at the basketball game, which opened at 9:30, the game was over, the score was 15 to 14. The Korean Frats won the game.

When Valentine is king...
EDUCATED MAN TAKES DEEP LIFE INTEREST

H. A. Mountin, Educational Director of Nuanan “Y” Gives His Views

"An educated man should be the man who has acquired a capital stock of interest in life," said H. A. Mountin, educational director of the Nuanan Y. M. C. A., in an interview granted the Young Korea the other day.

"Education should mean the increasing of our own mental wealth, and it is the duty of the educator, ‘Every day should mean a day of progress for the educator and the student,'" he added. And so the answer is, education: a science and art and habit of thinking. Thinking is the highest achievement in securing an education.

"One may say that the education of people in a country is classified under the heading of fruitful thinkers in our present day. "

Even in schools, the results of the tendency seems to be that of hurry and bustle; the people must be quick as you can, and graduate with a standard, too. Too many students are continually heard tolead the remark, 'get past that subject,' "I got it,' "I got it,' "I got it,' "I got it.' "It seems to be a part of the like of beast behavior. This student attitude should not be wholly fault of the individual. It may be a part of beast behavior of the persons who teach, and do more serious honest thinking than rushing around to be the first out of the machine, and be turned out as photographic rounding impressions. This is not illustrated lightly, not deeply enough in the present world. What is needed is for educated young people to stand on their own two feet, not only because they are_were_themselves, but also to do all that they can for themselves and their own.

Korean Trade in January is increasing. The Korean official trade, and Korean merchants of all kinds, are beginning to see the value of their own country in doing business with others.

KUKAI, 36, of the Kauai, March 3, special agent of the State Department, is now in Tokyo to recover an enormous tract of land, held at present by the Oriental Development Company.

Four Koreans who claim to represent 20,000 inhabitants of Kuyama, South China, are now in Tokyo to recover an enormous tract of land, held at present by the Oriental Development Company. The Koreans were sent to the Orient by the State Department for the purpose of recovering the land they claim is theirs. They claim that they are the owners of the land and that the Oriental Development Company is doing nothing is justifying the police surveillance.

The Rev. H. S. Kim of Honolulu declared in a powerful address on the need of greater cooperation among Koreans for the achievement of the supreme object, and his sentiment was echoed by other speakers in the Lee San League on Kauai and of others thereon. The government of the day was important and business of the day.

If Animals Don’t Think, People Think

Only in Emergency, Says Scientist

If animals don’t think, people think. Only in an emergency, says a scientist.

Just when did man come to be an animal equipped only with a set of instincts and become a human being, more, or less intelligence and soul?

Does the fact that the woman’s brain weighs two ounces less than man’s mean that she was not as intelligent and capable of doing much as man himself?

The answer is that the scientists have been harassing scientists themselves, and that much must be known of the relations of the sex and the brain.
