1. Descriptive Summary

Title: Alice Yun Chai Collection

Identifier: AM.049

Creator: Alice Yun Chai

Source: The Alice Yun Chai Collection was donated to the Center for Korean Studies by her descendants; Moon-Ki Chai, Sun-Ki Chai, and Yoon-Ki Chai, in May 2014.

Date (Inclusive): 1974–2007 (bulk 1990s)

Language: Mostly English, Korean, and Japanese

Extent: 6.7 linear feet. 16 archival boxes

Abstract: Alice Yun Chai (1928- 2011) was a researcher, historian, professor, and an activist. The bulk of the contents in this collection include Korean and other 'Comfort Women' of the Japanese military in the format of booklets, newsletters, other documents, and VHS tapes. 'Comfort Women' are women that were forced into sexual slavery during the Pacific War. They are also referred to by the discontinued term 'Jeongshindae' and 'Juugan Ianfu' in this collection. Other items included in the collection relate to topics such as first-generation Asian immigration to Hawai'i, where the women are colloquially and academically referred to as 'Picture Brides', woman-owned immigrant businesses in locations like Waikiki, various feminist publications, some personal and religious memoralia, and miscellaneous items.

Arrangement of the Collection:

The Collection is arranged in three series:

5. Scope and Content Note

The collection of Alice Yun Chai (1928-2011) spans the years 1974 to 2007, with the bulk of the material concentrated in the 1990s, when Chai was active in writing and engaging in speaking tours concerning the "Comfort Women" issue. In this collection it is occasionally referred to by the obsolete term "Jeongshindae". These records relate to Korean and other women forced into sexual slavery by military forces during the Pacific War ('Comfort Women'), first-generation Asian immigration to Hawai'i ('Picture Brides'), woman-owned immigrant businesses in Waikiki, feminist publications like those pertaining to the patriarchy within religious contexts, and other miscellaneous items. The Chai papers constitute an important source for twentieth-century activism centered in Feminism and Asian-Pacific women's rights. The collection also includes unique personal materials such as VHS tapes recorded by Alice Yun Chai on various topics both personal and academic. The collection consists of Booklets, Papers, and the VHS Tapes series.

The Booklets series mainly concerns 'Comfort Women' related publications published from 1983 to 2003. This series consists of four sub-series which include: 1.1 English-language Comfort Women Booklets, 1.2 Korean-language Comfort Women Booklets, 1.3 Japanese-language Comfort Women and Miscellaneous Booklets, and 1.4 Miscellaneous Booklets in Korean and English. It is organized by language and content. The bulk of the content is in English and Korean as denoted in the catalog. This portion of the Alice Yun Chai collection is a reflection of her documentation of firsthand accounts of sexual slavery survivors, organization of panels like the 1996 Comfort Women at the Women's United Nation, and scholarly advocacy in various forms.

The contents of the series Papers include newsletters, book drafts, magazine, pamphlets, and other printed materials. It consists of two boxes and is arranged by language. Box 7 consists exclusively of English contents while Box 8 has English, Korean, and Japanese content. This series also dominantly includes materials concerning 'Comfort Women' and other feminist issues. Some miscellaneous materials relating to Alice Yun Chai's personal life are also included in Box 8.

The VHS Tapes series contains video cassette tapes related to 'Comfort Women', 'Picture Brides', feminist issues, religious content, and various other materials. Boxes 15 and 16 have the largest concentration of miscellaneous materials with Box 16 consisting entirely of seemingly blank tapes.
