BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

[see C.V. for more information ]

Born to John F. and Constance L. (Friend) Adams in Port of Spain, Trinidad, Aug. 10, 1946; died Louisville, Kentucky, Nov. 30, 2008

He is survived by his wife Mary-Ellen Swain (married June 17, 1967) and three children—Greggory, Kristin, and Margaret.

From 1967 to 1971 Adams served in the Army, where he was a White House translator and manned the USA/USSR “hotline” from 1969-71. ; in 1976 he worked for the CIA.

Professor of Russian History at the University of Louisville in Kentucky. He began as an instructor in the department in 1980. His undergraduate, masters (1973), and doctoral (1975) work were all done at the University of Maryland. Adams was awarded many fellowships and grants, among which were an IREX (1978-79) and Fulbright (1978-79). He traveled to Russia in 1996 (or 97—not clear), 1999, and 2004 to do interviews the Russians who repatriated from China.

Specializing in the history of Russia, he taught a variety of courses in that area, including a two-semester survey of Russian history, Russian Cultural History, a graduate seminar on the Russian revolutions, and graduate reading classes on selected topics. He also participated heavily in teaching the general education course History of Civilizations.

He liked to create crossword puzzles, many of which were published in the New York Times. He was the founder of the Louisville-Perm (Russia) Sister City Committee.
