- You must be a resident of a country that has a tax treaty with the US. (Consult IRS Publication 901, US Tax Treaties, at <http://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/p901.pdf>. The tax treaty must have a treaty article applicable to the type of payment you'll be receiving:

- You must meet all requirements regarding residency, time, and dollar limitations described in the tax treaty.

2. Do you want to claim a treaty exemption from US federal tax withholding? (Check one box only.)

International Electronic Funds Transfer Certification

Effective September 18, 2009, the National Automated Clearing House Association (NACHA) changed the requirements for receiving electronic payments. As of that date, all electronic payments to banks in another country have to be coded as an international payment.

Although the University of Hawaii only allows electronic payments to U.S. banks, a vendor could instruct their U.S. bank to forward their payment to a bank in another country. In this scenario, the vendor's electronic payment to their U.S. bank must be coded as an international payment. Please see below for a sample scenario:

Sample Scenario

Company XYZ has their payment for services direct deposited into their U.S. bank account and then 100% of those funds are moved by their U.S. bank to a bank in Mexico. Effective September 18, 2009, this transaction must be coded as an international payment.

In order to comply with this requirement, please indicate in the check boxes below of the final destination of your electronic payments.

- The final destination of my electronic payment is a U.S. bank
- Electronic payments to my U.S. bank will be forwarded to a bank in another country
