Through the Time and Spirit

The Early Buddhist Murals of Dunhuang

August 26, 2024 - January 10, 2025

4th floor, Asia Collection

Dunhuang, a key hub on the ancient Silk Road, is renowned for its remarkable Buddhist art spanning from the 4th to the 14th century. This exhibit focuses on the early period (4th-6th century) of mural painting, emphasizing distinctive artistic techniques, vivid narratives, and evolving styles.

These early murals reflect the cultural and spiritual values of their time while showcasing the enduring legacy of Dunhuang art and its unique connections to the broader artistic traditions of Asia.
