MGW Center
Box 4-6
May 2010

New Box # "5x8"	Item	Description	Notes
4	initial packet filed on long edge	approx. 4" of citations and abstracts and notes on 8" x 5" Zatoperk and index Chamorro changing customs; Philippines - foods introduced with Spanish, Jesuits taught agriculture. [Seems some info abt. Guam may be mixed in with the Philippines.] Japanese occupation of Guam and food available during post-war period.	cards and paper re: ALS, [lytiko?] other diseases in Guam, several pages of health histories.
5	central column packet	8" x 5" Zatoperk and index cards and paper, approx. 9.5 " high; notes, citations, etc, lathyrism, livestock, food distribution programs/agencies, famine/disaster; toxins/insecticides; plants used as vegetables or seasonings; food stuffs, cooking methods, illnesses. Taboos and attitudes related to food. References in alpha order A-P. Brief section on trace elements & soil, additional citations.	Typed notes "Umatic - Feb. 1954 Chamorrons." "Ref. file, plants, Toxic Plants Neuro?" Family graph and health history.
6	last packet along back wall of box	8" x 5" Zatoperk and index cards and paper, notes, citations, etc.; various subjects: food patterns, nutritional needs and agriculture worldwide. Also medicinal plants of Palau, Yap, other South Pacific islands. Some notes on diet, statistics, diet, food supply; maternal-infant food practices, practices re: umbilical cord, breast-feeding and weaning. Milk production of various animals, food production.	Stories source and informants on Guam recount time before arrival of and during time of Spanish occupation, food/feasts; notes on toxicities of plants for animals and people.