LSM LOOKING FOR THE NEW STUDENT REP

LSM is running a special election to fill the position of Student Representative for the Spring 2023 term (January-May). This election will be taking place over the next two months, with the nomination form opening on Wednesday, November 9.

A reminder that you can nominate yourself as well as other people! The following is a quick description of the workload and expectations for the role:

- Approximate time commitment: 8 hrs/month
- Sample of duties: Serve as a student representative at faculty meetings; report on each faculty meeting to the LSM, and keep the student population informed of any relevant information; file the faculty meeting report with the front office within two weeks of each meeting; advocate on behalf of individual students and the student body; meet with department chair monthly as a part of LSM’s Advocacy Committee.

If you have any specific questions before deciding to run, reach out to Sydney Ludlow (current interim student rep) or Carolyn Siegman (LSM President). More details, including the full election timeline and link to the nomination form, are forthcoming via email.
Class Registration opens on Mon, Nov 14th
