Instructions

All undergraduate music majors must complete a capstone experience, either a junior recital or a senior project. Students approved for a junior recital should consult with their applied music teacher for department guidelines. The senior project (MUS 495, 1-2 credits), which students develop in consultation with the advisor and complete in the final year of study, may consists of an internship (e.g. with a school, arts organization, cultural association or music-related enterprise), a research paper, or some other suitable project determined in consultation with the student's advisor. Since some projects may require lengthy various possibilities with their advisors during the junior year of study. Projects must be approved, both by the student's academic advisor and the Undergraduate Chair, by the last class day of the semester prior to the project's start. If you have any questions, please contact the Undergraduate Chair.
