Music at Mānoa

The Music Department at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa offers the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Education, Master of Arts, Master of Music, and Doctorate in Music. To support these degree programs, twenty-two full-time music faculty and approximately thirty lecturers offer instruction that provides a broad liberal background for the general music student, prepares the prospective elementary and secondary school teacher, and trains the student for careers in professional performance, composition, private teaching, research, and college teaching.

Ticket revenues are only a small portion of the support needed for the success of our musical performances. We depend on the generosity of music lovers like you.

If you would like to make a donation to the Music Department, please visit our web site, www.hawaii.edu/uhammusic, and click on "Giving"

While you are there, you can also get information about our academic programs and upcoming performances.
