In today's app and technology driven world, are musicians and artists being treated fairly? With streaming services such as Spotify, SoundCloud, and mostly recently Apple Music, how can artists assure themselves of their compensation? Self-expression through music has always been a major part of our history, but do artists truly have freedom when writing their own lyrics? With fame comes paparazzi; but to what expense? Join four colorful and renowned members of the entertainment industry as they discuss some of the ethical dilemmas that arise throughout the industry.
