OFFICE OF THE DEAN – Org Code: MADNAH

The Office of the Dean of the College of Arts and Humanities directs and coordinates the activities, curricular, personnel and budget affairs of the College and its ancillary support components including budget management, program management, staff supervision, community relations, grievance and litigation, and travel.

The role of the college is to implement the mission statement of the university, which is:

- to provide all qualified people in Hawai‘i an equal opportunity for high quality university education
- to create knowledge and gain insights through research and scholarship
- to preserve and contribute to the artistic and cultural heritage of the community
- to provide other public service through the dissemination of current and new ideas and techniques.

The college serves two broad constituencies: (1) students seeking general education subjects within and beyond the arts and sciences “Core” and (2) undergraduate and graduate majors within our departments and in the Honors and Interdisciplinary Studies programs.

In concert with the role the college plays in implementing and enhancing state and university plans and in helping departments, faculty, staff, and students reach their goals, our mission is:

- to support the university's special interest in Asia and the Pacific
- to reaffirm the centrality of the arts and humanities in higher education
- to help students adapt to rapid cultural and technological change
- to reassert the value of personal involvement in and responsibility to society
- to prepare students for meaningful positions in the economy of Hawai‘i, the nation, and the Pacific.

Because of the university's geographical position, the college and its departments are unusually conscious of the importance of the Pacific Basin nations and Asia, and many course offerings in proportion of the teaching and research in these areas has been done by faculty and students in our college. The college maintains a close relationship with the School of Pacific and Asian Studies (SPAS), because so many of our faculty are involved in SPAS activities.

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGION – Org Code: MAREL

The department provides students the opportunity to learn about the histories, beliefs, discourses, and practices of the world’s religions. The multi-cultural and multi-religious ethos of Hawai‘i allows students ready access to a diverse spectrum of the religious traditions that exist and are practiced here. At the undergraduate level, students are encouraged to gain a basic understanding of the concept of religion and to explore a broad spectrum of the world’s religions. The graduate program focuses primarily on the religions of Asia and the Pacific and is designed to prepare students for study at the doctorate level as well as teaching of religion. Major Academic Areas: Multi-disciplinary studies of religions in Asia and the Pacific: comparative religion, history of religion, theory and philosophy of religion, textual studies of religion, ritual studies, visual religion, regional studies of religion (India, China, Japan, and Polynesia).

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICICOLOGY – Org Code: MASP

The Communicology program focuses on research and education in communication processes and functions, strengthened and enriched by the cultural diversity of Hawai’i. Our students obtain a liberal education of considerable breadth and depth in regard to communication theory and research, and are afforded ample opportunity to develop their communicative knowledge and skills by applying theory in diverse settings. Major Academic Areas: human message processing, relational communication, social influence, and intercultural communication.
DEPARTMENT OF THEATRE AND DANCE – Org Code: MATD

The Department of Theatre and Dance offers a wider range of cultural performances and artistic studies than any other university in the world. The performing arts are a mirror with which to reflect society; we train our students to gain insight and compassion through the study of a wide array of cultural offers, with Asian, Western and Hawaiian performance sharing our classrooms and stages. Especially important are those connections between classroom and stage, between studying forms of theatre and dance and then experiencing those forms in performance; we facilitate in-depth connections throughout the world as performers, educators, administrators and researchers.

Major Academic Areas: Theatre—Asian, Hawaiian and Western (Acting, Directing, History, Theory), Playwriting, Design, TYA (Theatre for Young Audiences), Performance Studies. Dance—history, anatomy, notation, movement analysis, and pedagogy; performance of modern, ballet and Asian and Pacific dance forms; choreography; dance education; culture and performance studies.

ACADEMY FOR CREATIVE MEDIA – Org Code: MAACM

The academy emphasizes narrative, or story-telling, theories, skills and application across multiple platforms of digital media and within a context of cultural and aesthetic values. More than just a “film school,” ACM seeks to empower students to tell their own stories of Hawaii, the Pacific and Asia rather than have those stories told for them through a different cultural lens that is distant and often distorted. Major Academic Areas: digital cinema, animation, and critical studies.
