Notes:

Students must incorporate all focus requirements into this plan.

The Department of Communicology has a mandatory advising policy. All Communicology majors must meet with their assigned Communicology advisor prior to registering for the following semester's classes. Please contact the Department Undergraduate Chair to secure a Communicology advisor.

Only 3 total credits of COMG 399 (Practicum) and/or COMG 499 (independent study) may be used to fulfill students' elective requirements and up to 3 total credits of COMG 453 (Practicum in Debate and Forensics) may be applied to the Communicology degree

In residence policy: A minimum of 15 credit hours, which includes COMG 302, must be taken in the Department of Communicology at UHM.

Minimum 45 upper division (300+ course) credits are required.
