Grants, Contracts, & Other Funding

MICRONESIANS ADVANCING IN THE HEALTH PROFESSIONS (MAPH)

Role: Co-Investigator (PI: Theresa Kreif)

Award: $94,000

Funder: Provost's Strategic Investment Initiative Funds

The purpose of this project is to create a community-driven support program for Micronesian students seeking careers in the health and social welfare professions (MAHP). While some current research suggests barriers to entry into higher education overall, no current research exists around push and pull factors for Micronesian students to enter the health and social welfare professions. Potential and current students from the Micronesian region would be well served to have a robust infrastructure to support their knowledge development related to professional pathways in medicine, public health and social welfare, rather than the current informal structures. 2023-2024

HAWAI'I SUBSTANCE USE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (SUPD)

Role: Co-Principal Investigator (PI: Dr. C. Bersamira)

Award: $800,000/yr

Funder: Alcohol and Drug Abuse Division, State of Hawai'i Department of Health

The Hawai'i Substance Use Professional Development (SUPD) Project is a partnership between the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa Thompson School of Social Work and Public Health and the Department of Health Alcohol and Drug Abuse Division (ADAD) to assess the current state of the substance use workforce in Hawai'i and address its training needs. 2022-current.

CARE COORDINATION AND CASE MANAGEMENT TRAINING AND CAPACITY BUILDING

Role: Evaluator (PI: Dr. S. Hong, Thompson School) Award: $1,500,000
Funder: CDC via state subcontract (Overdose Data to Action grant)
Contract to focus on developing trainings to improve care coordination and case management skills, assisting practitioners to implement evidence-based, data-driven prevention activities, and developing workforce. Sept. 2019-Aug. 2020

IMPACTS OF SOCIAL PROXIMITY TO BIAS CRIME AMONG COMPACT OF FREE ASSOCIATION (COFA)-MIGRANTS IN HAWAII

Role: Principle Investigator Award: $380,000
Funder: National Institute of Justice
Federal funding to explore the ways that bias crime impact the acculturation and adaptation process for immigrant groups by conducting a respondent-driven sampling-driven study of Micronesian migrants in Hawai'i. The project aims to first document the frequency of bias crime victimization, then explore how being the direct victim, or knowing people who have been victimized, impacts mental health, health, and acculturation to a new host culture. Jan. 2016-Dec. 2018.

HEALTH AND SMOKING CESSATION AMONG MICRONESIAN POPULATIONS

Role: Program Evaluator Award: $5,000
Lead Agency: Kokua Kalihi Valley Comprehensive Family Services
Funder: Hawaii Community Foundation
Purpose was to use Photovoice as a tool for uncovering how Micronesian populations conceptualize health, culture, and their reasons for smoking, in order to design a) health trainings for professionals, and b) smoking cessation programming for Micronesian populations. March 2012-Jan. 2013.

TITLE IV-E: DISTANCE EDUCATION MSW TRAINING PROGRAM

Role: Principle Investigator
Funder: Title IVE, Hawai'i State Department of Human Services

Federal Award: 2010-2011	$503,000	Total Budget:	$1,103,615
Federal Award: 2009-2010	$452,367	Total Budget:	$936,854

Federal funding to provide the Masters in Social Work Program to remote and rural locations in Hawai'i and to address significant workforce shortages, with a focus on developing social workers who specialize in child and family practice. Total budget includes both federal and state funds used to implement the distance education option of the MSW program.

SERVICE UTILIZATION AND BARRIERS TO CARE FOR VETERANS IN RURAL AND URBAN SETTINGS

Role: Co-investigator (PI: Dr. J. Whealin, National Center for PTSD) Award: $93,077
Funder: VA Health Services Research & Development
A one year research grant to study the differences in perceptions of community-based stigma in rural and urban settings and to compare the impact of those perceptions on OIF/OEF Veteran service utilization. 2010-2011

SAME SEX MARRIAGE & SEXUAL ORIENTATION-BASED HATE CRIMES: VIOLENCE AS VALUE-EXPRESSION

Role: Principle Investigator Award: $11,400
Funder: Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues
A one year grant to study the impact of the same-sex marriage debates throughout the United States on hate crime rates. 2010-2011

BARRIERS TO CARE AMONG CULTURALLY DIVERSE U.S. VETERANS

Role/Contract: Interagency Personnel Agreement Award: 2009-2010 $21,085
 Funder: National Center for PTSD, Pacific Division 2008-2009 $10,531
 In collaboration with the National Center for PTSD and the Veterans Administration, co-investigator on a research project that examines barriers to care and stigma against those with mental health problems among military veterans of Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom.

CONSUELO FOUNDATION PROGRAM EVALUATION

Role: Co-investigator (PI: Dr. P. Morelli) Award: $50,000
 Funder: Consuelo Foundation
 A one year grant to explore evaluation methods for indigenous and local programs in order to develop a model for culturally appropriate program evaluations. 2008-2009.

TRANSGENDER MENTORING PROJECT – PROGRAM EVALUATION

Role: Co-investigator (PI: Dr. C. Nagatoshi and Dr. P. Arnsberger) Award: $100,000
 Funder: SAMHSA/Center for Substance Abuse Prevention
 Targeted Capacity Expansion Substance Abuse Prevention and HIV Prevention in Minority Communities (RFA #SP-03-005) grant to Kū Aloha Ola Mau (formerly DASH). Program evaluation contract ($20K/year for five years) to evaluate the effect of substance abuse prevention of a culturally-based program. Made a co-investigator in the final year of project, 2007-2008.

EMPIRICAL STUDY OF SEXUAL ORIENTATION-BASED DISCRIMINATION IN HONG KONG

Role: Co-PI (with Holning Lau, J.D., of UNC, Chapel Hill) Award: $3,500
 Funder: Williams Institute, UCLA School of Law
 A two year grant to survey sexual orientation minorities in Hong Kong about discrimination and incidences of violence that are motivated by violence. 2007
