Special exam schedules and exceptions

- Some courses hold "Common Finals," where all sections of the same course number take their final at the same time. Common Finals are noted in the chart below.
- Most classes that meet once a week will have their final on the day and time that the class usually meets. Students confirm with your instructor; instructors confirm with your department secretary.
- If you have any conflicts in your final exam schedule, check with your instructors. When asking to make different arrangements, please ask the instructor of the course with the fewest students first.
