Paid Undergraduate Asian Studies Research Opportunity: International Business and Japan

Are you a currently enrolled UH Manoa undergraduate student with intermediate or advanced Japanese language skills?

Want to learn about the social science research process and statistical analysis?

Earn money to collaborate with a professor on a mentored research project this summer!

Work from anywhere—all activities online!

No experience or statistics training required!

APPLY BY MONDAY, MAY 18!

For more information and application instructions, see https://tinyurl.com/y86c2kb5. Contact Professor Kristi Govella at kgovella@hawaii.edu with any questions.

Position pays $11.65/hour up to a maximum of $2,330 total for the summer. Dates and schedule are negotiable.